HISTORY

EDUCATION
4TH PART IN HISTORY

Most of us like to read and study the development of culture, especially in Virginia. We realize that we are affected by the development and try to find examples that apply to us. By doing this we can change a dull history into an interesting adventure story or statistics into a delightful narrative.

Whether or not we realize it, we at C.V.C. are making history. It is thrilling to know that we are part of a new development. We are paving a way for collegiate development in Southwestern Virginia. This is not something to be laughed at. When we, as the first class, do we will greatly determine the standing of our school. We all should realize this and think of it as something to be passed over lightly. We must realize that this is not a passing fad. We should strive to do the best we can in life as well as in studies. We should do more than just what it takes to get by. We want a school we can be proud of, not to have such a school and be associated with it must do his part.

People in our county and at Charlottesville are sacrificing much for us. They are doing their best to give us an opportunity to get an education. Do not say, "What do I care? It is nothing to me." Instead say, "I will do my best."

We are setting standards that will be followed in the years to come. Our school has many supporters; visitors and faculty have expressed great interest and have contributed much. The future of the school depends upon us and our accomplishments. "I'll do my best", should be our motto.

Much will be determined in those first two years. Our lives as well as the life of the school is being molded. Let’s grow up and learn to accept responsibility.

From Coeburn come Eugene Bond, Eugene Manicure, and Mary Frances Hansen. Donald Miller, Clinton Wood, Harry Bratton, Castlewood; Douglas Profitt, Esserville; Joe Slaughter, Kokee; Stickley Mullins, Appalachia; and Edward Gilliam, Big Stone Gap are also enrolled as new students.

News

The Second Annual Gladeville Amateur Art Exhibit is being held at Perry's Pharmacy and will continue throughout the month of February. Most of the paintings are from Wise County and are contemporary works. There is also one room of paintings on exhibition from the art class of J.J. Kelly High School. Included in the paintings on exhibition are portraits, oil paintings, and water colors. The judging of the paintings will be made next week by Mrs. Lois Tracy, Wise; Mr. James True; Big Stone Gap; and Dr. Irene Miller, Wise. Recognition will be given to the persons who have the best paintings on display.

Life is Funny

Man comes into this world without his consent and leaves it against his will.

During his stay on earth his time is spent in one continuous round of contradictions and misunderstandings.

In his infancy he is an angel. In his boyhood he is a devil. In his manhood he is everything from a lizard up. If he raises a family he is a chump. If he doesn't raise a family he is too selfish. If he raises a check he is a crook. If he is a poor man he is a madman and has no sense. If he is rich he is smart but dishonest. If he is in politics he is a grifter. If he is not in politics he is an undesirable citizen. If he goes to church he is a hypocrite. If he doesn't he is a sinner. If he gives to charity it is for show. If he doesn't he is a tight wad. When he first comes into the world every one wants to kiss him, before he leaves the world everyone wants to kick him. If he dies young there was a great future before him. If he lives to a ripe old age he is in the way. —Author Unknown.

An assembly of all the students was held February 22. Dr. Oron Hale, Professor of European History at the University of Virginia, was guest speaker. He spoke on the educational system in Germany and the United States. Dr. Hale compared the technical educational system of Germany to our liberal one.

Dr. Hale traveled in Germany, England and France during 1927 and 1928, while a Fellow of Social Research Council in Germany, he observed the establishment of Hitler's Nazi dictatorship. His military experience included duty in Military Intelligence Service, War Department, General Staff and Headquarters, U. S. Forces in Europe. He was a member of a special commission for the interrogation of high ranking Nazi political and military and diplomatic history of Europe.

Professor Joseph C. Smiddy conducted the student body in singing "America." Linda Addington was the pianist.

Veterans Meet

A meeting of approximately twenty-five veterans was held February 22, for the purpose of discussing the possibility of forming a Veterans Club at C.V.C. Professor Joseph Vance presided over the meeting, and Eugene Bond was elected to write the rules and by-laws which will be discussed at the next meeting. Members of the temporary committee are: Paul Quillon, Eugene Bond, Curtis Lyons, and Bruce Scott.

Glee Club Activities

People have been wondering why the piano has ceased to be used in the lounge. Don't fret! The piano has been moved to the basement, where the Glee Club has been rehearsing. Several new students have joined the choir. These are Paul West, Mitchell Turner, Edward Gilliam, Bobby Tillor, Francis Hanson, and Ardetta Rose. Any student who wishes to join the choir, may do so. At present the choir is working on "Begin the Beguine" and "You'll Never Walk Alone".

Our pianist, Miss Linda Addington, was in the hospital for two days. As a result, the choir was unable to fill an appointment at Coeburn High School. The Glee Club entertained both the Lions Club and the Kiwanis Club of Norton during the last semester. Several appointments had to be canceled during the examination periods because the students were busy studying. These engagements will be filled during the Spring.

A Chinese cook was taking a walk through the woods when he noticed a grizzly bear following, smelling his tracks. "So," he said, "you like my tracks? Very good, me make some more!"
STUDENTS INVOLVED IN ACCIDENT

Since school began at C.V.C. in September 1958, students have driven over 100,000 miles to attend classes. Although a great deal of this mileage has been on dangerous secondary roads, there has been only one serious accident.

The accident occurred on Indian Creek Mountain about 14 miles from Wise, Virginia. Jim Greear, James Mullins, and Peggy Hall were on their way to school Monday morning, February 21, when the truck, driven by Jim Greear, collided with a 1958 Ford Convertible. According to State Trooper Don Riner, the car skidded to the left on the wet pavement and was hit in the side by the oncoming truck.

All eight people in the two vehicles were injured; some with bruises and cuts and others more seriously. James Mullins was the most seriously injured of the three students. He was hospitalized at the Park Avenue Hospital in Norton with head lacerations and was released Wednesday. Peggy Hall and Jim Greear luckily escaped with only minor bruises and cuts.

Let's all drive carefully. Remember that the next accident may be someone's last one.

The head of our English Department, William L. Wilson, did most of his graduate work at the University of North Carolina with some study at Princeton University. He attended public schools in Pennsylvania. After graduation from high school he attended college in Georgia.

He began his teaching career at Washington State College in Pullman, Washington. He has taught at the University of North Carolina, at University of Mississippi, and at Georgia Tech; coming to this college from the University of Richmond.

Professor Wilson is a member of the Poetry Society of Virginia, the College English Association, and the Southern Society of General Semantics.

His greatest concern in life, he says, is the possibility of people to develop themselves to get the best results from the predicament and privilege of being alive." He hopes to find someone here who will show an interest in verse creative writing. His latest writings, which have been published, have been book reviews.

Professor Wilson, now residing in Wise, is married and has one child.

To many of us there comes at last a time when we must admit that we are no longer the men we have never been.

DR. ANNA IRENE MILLER

Dr. Anna Irene Miller has joined the faculty of the Clinch Valley Branch of the University of Virginia. Dr. Miller is teaching courses in English and Public Speaking in day school, as well as a course in Public Speaking at Big Stone Gap in the evening.

She is a graduate of Mount Holyoke College. From Columbia University, she received her Master's Degree, and her Ph.D. from Radcliffe.

Dr. Miller was Professor of English at Goucher College, Towson, Maryland, for many years. Last year, she was a visiting professor at Centre College of Kentucky.

Her community interests consist of community movements, Irish literature, modern drama, and encouraging playwriting. While teaching evening classes in modern drama at Johns Hopkins University, she was one of the organizers of the Homewood Playshop of that University, "a little theatre", which produces both distinguished plays by famous dramatists and the work of talented beginners.

"Do you allow a man to kiss you when you are out driving with him?" a girl asked her friend.

"Never," answered the other "any man who can drive safely while kissing me isn't giving the kiss the attention it deserves."

Girls! The colors this Spring are pastel shades, and I would suggest a shade of lipstick to match these colors. This will tend to give the complexion a glow.

A girl with a slim figure will likely select a dress that is gathered at the waist, and choose at least three crinolines to wear under her new spring frock. The crinolines tend to flatter the waist line. For the girl who is short, I would suggest the Princess style dress which can also be worn with one or two crinolines.

Any girl, whether short or tall, will look smart in the box jacket and straight skirt as her new Easter suit. To match this outfit, she should choose the beret style hat, which can be decorated with either a veil, buttons, or flowers.

The fashionable shoes this spring are the sling-heel pumps, open toe pumps, and the strapless heel. I would suggest in choosing one's informal dress that one choose a dress with a full swing skirt. Dancing in a form fitting dress can be uncomfortable. Also, the girl who dances a great deal will more likely choose flat heels; this provides smooth or stops when following her companion.

"A man wouldn't object to giving a woman the last word if she would make it last."
In the spring a young man's fancies turn to thoughts of: Those new spring shades in pinks, lavenders, purples and varied pastels in Manhattan Shirts, Argyle and Stretchy nylon sport shirts and slacks.

The young lady turns her thoughts at spring time to fashion magazines such as Seventeen and Glamour which advertise such nice things as Han Dorsey sportswear, Vicky Vaughn Dresses, Toni Todd Dresses.

The younger lady turns her attention to Arlone Aires Dresses, Key Karen Dresses and those frilly little hats with bags to match.

The man of the house turns his thoughts to Panglo's Department Store at Pound, Virginia, where he can buy all the foregoing at a saving. He knows that Panglo's Department Store gives the most for the money in clothing and housewear for the entire family.
