Fall Term To Open Sept. 12, Improvements Are Planned

The program of studies at Clinch Valley College has been enlarged into a full two-year program. A total of 18 credit hours will be offered during the fall term, beginning Sept. 12. The program for the fall term was introduced at a meeting July 5, on a proposition that the College sponsor a fall term as a means of giving high school seniors in this area an opportunity to attend college and experience college life before they make a decision to accept a college scholarship or go to work.

Science Fair Is Planned At CVC Program Enlarged

The Faculty of Clinch Valley College has decided to hold a Science Fair this fall with a meeting July 5, on a report that the College sponsor a fall term. The Science Fair will be held at the meeting.

Summer Students Top Winter List

The list of students enrolled for the summer term at Clinch Valley College includes 200 students. The summer term was opened on June 20, and classes will continue through July 20.

Nine New Instructors Join CVC Summer Staff

We are fortunate in having on our staff nine new instructors for the summer term at Clinch Valley College. The summer term begins on June 20.

Mr. W. F. Crockett, Area Extension Director, announced that the 2nd year of operations will begin at Clinch Valley College on September 5, 1954.

Dr. W. F. Crockett, Area Extension Director, announced that the 2nd year of operations will begin at Clinch Valley College on September 5, 1954. In addition to the added program of studies, courses in modern languages, psychology, and chemistry will be offered.

on the originality of each individual. Some of the people who wonder about the operation they could not be enrolled strolled over and even expressed confidence. She will be one of friendly fellow-classmates, etc., from the amorphous mass. The complete operation has been one of friendly fellowship among the students, and what has been lacking in creative, artistic talent has been more than compensated in enthusiasm.

Just For Fun

No Chiselling

A man saw in a shop window a suit that caught his fancy. He went in.

"How much do you want for that herringbone suit in the window?" he asked the proprietor.

The latter eyed him speculatively. "For that suit," he said, "I'm not asking $40, I'm not offering you $40 — I'm offering you $35."

"Sold," snapped the proprietor. Instantly, "That's the way I like to do business — no chiselling.

NOT SO FUNNY

"Well, when does the fun start?" asked the prisoner after he had spent a day in jail.

"Well, that's the fun," said the warder. "There's no fun here.

"Well, I'm bloody disgusted with the prisoner. And the judge distinctly told me that I was coming here for the time of my life."

To be vain of one's rank or place is to show that one is below it — Manchulous.

His Habit

The case was one of assault.

A lens may bear the spark
That burns a lowered town
And yet itself and cold remain Unchanged.

The magistrate eyed the prisoner sternly.

"You malakthe that you threw your wife out of the second story window through forgetfulness!" he stated.

"That's right, your honor," retorted the prisoner. "We used to live on the ground floor, and I forget we'd moved up."

FOOLING HIM

Little Mary seemed heartbroken when her pet canary died, and to justify her, her father gave her an empty cigar box, and with much ceremony assisted in burying the box in the garden.

"Dad," whispered Mary after the funeral was over, "will my birds go to Heaven?"

"I expect so," replied the father. "Why?"

"I was only thinking," murmured the youngest, "how cross St. Peter will be when he opens the box and finds it isn't cigars after all."
