New Play Group To Produce College's First Play In April

The Highland Players, the new student drama group at CVC, has selected "Blithe Spirit," a farce in three acts, by Noel Coward, as its first play. The final tryouts were March 20 and the following cast and stage crew was announced:

The play is under the direction of Dr. Anna Irene Miller assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Judd L. Lawless.

The group will give a performance at J. K. Kelly High School, April 24th, 6 p.m. and a performance in the Pound Theatre on March 5, 7:30 p.m. Two other performances are planned but definite time and location have not been announced yet.

The Highland Players are excited about presenting this play because they are bringing it in their own production and the star is in attendance. They believe this will be the best performance ever produced in Wise County.

Players Organize
In a business meeting of the newly formed drama club of the Clinch Valley College, April 9th, the group voted to adopt the "Highland Players" as their official title. The group will present "Blithe Spirit" April 27th in Wise, Va. and May 3 in Pound, Va.

Professor Becomes American Citizen

By Jack Jones
The Federal Building in Abingdon, Va., was the scene of a dream come true for Miss Luci Kegler, professor of French and Spanish at CVC on April 17th. Judge A. B. Barkdale swore in a group of fourteen South west Virginia residents and an immigration officer certified that the privileges for citizenship, including the vote, were granted to the people of the U.S. and a demonstrated familiarity with the Constitution of the U.S.

Miss Kegler came to this country from Austria with her parents in 1926. Her father, an attorney, took up chicken farming in Pennsylvania. Miss Kegler attended Mississipit State College for Women and did graduate work at Duke University. Miss Kegler is the largest member of the Clinch Valley faculty. She enjoys photography, nature, hiking, music, young people, and is a member of the University of Duke University, where she did the work for her postgraduate degree.

Enrollment At CVC Reaches 360

Figures just released from the Registrar's Office indicate that the total enrollment including 360 students at the Clinch Valley College for the school year 1955-56 exceeded the enrollment of the 1954-55 session by 120.'

The total enrollment during the 1954-55 session were 241 as compared to 300 for the 1954-55 session. Of these 360, 183 are day students enrolled as day students during the 1955 summer session.

Next Step Made In Plans To Build

The firm of Vicas and Thompson, Architect and Engineers, has completed a survey of the college property and has established the property line. A map is being drawn showing the property line and will be ready within the next two weeks. All future college buildings, campus layout, roads, etc. will be laid out according to the location of the new buildings and will be erected in the near future.

Letter to Editor

Editor of Highland Cavalier

April 5, 1956

Dear Editor:

I am writing you because I was told that someone is trying to get the Honor Code at Clinch Valley College overturned. As a student of the college, I should like to express my opinion on this matter.

First of all, I would like to state that the Honor Code is an important part of the college's policy. It is a way of ensuring that students are held accountable for their actions and that they are expected to act with integrity.

However, I believe that there are some concerns that have been raised about the Honor Code. For example, some students have argued that it is too strict and that it sets unrealistic expectations.

But I would like to respond to this by saying that the Honor Code is not meant to be a punishment. It is meant to be a way of promoting a strong Honor System. It is meant to encourage students to be responsible and to act with integrity.

As a student, I have found that the Honor Code has benefited me in many ways. It has taught me to be responsible and to be accountable for my actions. It has also helped me to develop a stronger sense of character.

I hope that you will consider the importance of the Honor Code and that you will support its continued existence at Clinch Valley College.

Sincerely yours,

[Student's Name]
REVIEW

(Continued From Page 3) By now Cecile was getting smarter all the time and she cooked up a scheme to get rid of Anne. The truth is Cecile wasn't holding a little smart-aleck. Anyway, it seems that Ela and Cyril was going to pretend that they were in love so Raymond could get jalous and take Elsa away from Cyril. If this could be done now maybe Cecile would get mad as a old wet hen and just stand it. This went along smooth for awhile but now Cecile began to get worried because she was afraid that this here love between Ela and Cyril might turn out to be the real thing after all. To tell the truth she took to drinking "moon-shot" and all that pestil of smart-aleck. So, pretty heavy and she woke up many a morning with a big hangover. And in-between she couldn't eat nothing for breakfast. Bad hair, been got some good and she couldn't do nothing and this really cut her worried.

GETTING THINGS FIXED

As the story goes, the girls finally got her pa to go out with Ela and Cyril and Ela went around fixing up things proper. It seems that Ann and Cyril raymond and together and she really got mad and didn't no time in getting away from that place. But now you know Cecile begin to realize that she actually loved Ela and Cyril and believe also did cause she really went into a long crying spell. Cecile and Raymond really didn't see it and they thought that they'd just wait and see let her to come to her better half but while they was writing this first letter they got a phone call crying that Anne had an accident in her car and was actually dead. Now this really did upset them. Cecile even realized she didn't like Cyril any more. As old her man got a bottle out of the car box and put on a big one. To tell the truth they really turned out to be two old-fashioned sides.

What Weather

Professor T. W. Gibson, official weather observer at the Clinch Valley College sub-station, had a few interesting remarks to make about the inclement weather we have had for the last two months. From the end of the year until the present the rainfall for this area has been about 3.5 times the normal. For the four week period from January 26 to February 18, over 15 inches of rain fell. Our complaints about all the rain seems to be somewhat unjustified if we could consider Prof. Gibson estimate that this 15 inches of rain in two months has amounted to more than 12 feet of snow.

Baseball In Sports Spotlight
At Clinch Valley College

Baseball practice at CVCC has been limited by bad weather, but the interest and enthusiasm boys has made up for the cold, rainy days that practice was rained. Prospects for a fast and hard hitting team are bright, with eight returning veterans and seven first-year men.

Returning veterans are Kyle Jesse, a smooth-working catcher who held left-handed; Ronald Burgitt, who handles the first base chores; Paul Kilgore, who alternates at second base and right field; Joe Slaughter, hitting short stop; Don Jack Mullins, who will play at third base; Carter Collins and Houston Hubbard who will be pitching; David Tyler, who will share the outfield chores. New members of the team are Dale Bink, who alternates at pitching and in the outfield; Ray Mullins, a hard hitting second baseman who will be a lot of action; Don Womack, who plays the outfield; Brannible Davidson, a hard hitting outfielder who will play center field; Jim "Slick" Dye, who will see a lot of left field; Kenneth "Red"itation, who will share the catching chores with Kyle Jesse; and Hershel Sluss, who is a curve-ball pitcher.

The first game of the season was scheduled for April 9 at 1:00 P.M., but was postponed because of rain. The game will probably be rescheduled for May 21, but no definite time is given. There will be a baseball game between CVCC and Norton High School on May 21, at the Norton Ball Park.

The game was stopped after six innings with the score 13-0 in favor of CVCC. Following is a schedule for the season:

April 8 — L. M. U., there, rainout
April 11 — Norton High, there
April 15 — Clinch Valley, there
April 18 — Petersburg, here

Also, two games with Less McRae of Banner Elk, North Carolina, were rescheduled for April 19 that the University of Virginia will play Clinch Valley College in April. The games will be in Norton Municipal Stadium.

Talking Trash
By Jim "Palm"

Senior Bill Moneyhun, is wondering about this dry heat, and whoever made the note on his car at approximately 8:00 A.M. on April the 15th, while he was in Spanish class. This means class, and Light, ain't in the dark when it comes to that, he effortlessly flies from the one situation to another with the ease of a Pro, while the rest of us amateurs have difficulty in the dark; so how about giving us some lessons, Bill, on how to get away in daylight?

There is a growing rumor, which we rashly disbelieve, that professor Smiddy will not be with us this summer according to the grapevine community.
