The Outpost Takes Shape

The past three weeks have been busy ones for the Outpost staff. After careful planning, the 1958 Outpost is now beginning to transcend the preliminary stage and take on a definite form and shape. The staff would like to take this opportunity which the Highland Cavalier offers to report our progress to the student body.

After some deliberations, the members of the staff have decided to purchase two copies of the yearbook—the approximate total cost of printing the books will be $200, half of which must be paid for in advertisements. We also decided to have a simple modern cover which would blend with our times—our fifth year. The cover will be red with a black rub and white lettering. The paper and type inside the book will be of the best quality—linotype and enamel paper.

The theme is wonderful and the ideas are good, but, if we are to make a successful year, we need more students to help plan and finance the project. We need more fresh men who can type, who can plan, who can write copy, who can edit, and who can be efficient. We need ad salmons especially for the Outpost. Our present staff has this year is training freshmen for next year's work. No music lover could find a better way to spend his money than to attend the concert which will be a lasting memory for all those who attend. Our thanks to Mr. Birmingham for this wonderful contribution to the culture of Wise County.

Piano Concert

Mr. Hugh Birmingham will present a piano concert at the Kelly High School Auditorium in Wise, Tuesday, November 25, at 8:15 P.M. The concert is sponsored by the American Association of University Women, and proceeds will go for the Wise Public Library Fund. Admission prices are: $1.00 for adults, 50 cents for students. The concert program is as follows:

\[\text{Chaconne } \quad \text{— O. F. Handel}\]

\[\text{Sonata, D Major, K. 576 } \quad \text{— W. A. Mozart}\]

\[\text{Sonata no. 3, op. 29 } \quad \text{— B. Prokofiev}\]

This is a challenging program for any pianist, because of both the interpretational variety and the technical difficulties involved. The Handel and the Mozart selections require a delicate touch, while the Brahms works demand an intensely emotional interpretation. The Prokofiev selection and particularly the Prokofiev Sonata demands relation both to pianist and piano, and the technical demands of both are enormous.

No doubt the program of music will be a better way to spend his money or his time than to come to this concert. The money goes for a good cause. The money will be needed for a memory for all those who attend. Our thanks to Mr. Birmingham for this wonderful contribution to the culture of Wise County.

Student Council Holds First Meet

By Robert Tanner

The first meeting of the Honor Court and Student Council of Clinch Valley College was held Tuesday, October 25, 1958. Jack Cooper, president of the student body, opened the meeting with a greeting to all new members.

The purpose of this meeting was to acquaint the newly-elected members with the college. Everyone received a copy of the Honor Code, which has been in practical use at the University of Virginia, and everyone ran on an independent ticket. Social Committee Works

By Kay Hawkins

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. Most of us have heard this old saying. It may be true, but it still holds true. For that reason, our social committee is busily making plans for the social season. It is our job to present the suggestions which our classmates give us.

Our social swing has started very well. We are already making plans for the annual Holly Ball. It will be held at The Inn on December 18th. This Spring, we will have a formal dance.

We are also working on other suggestions and will welcome new ones. If you have any, please let us know. Contact a member of the committee: Kay Joe Richmond, Kay Hawkins, Mathie Smith, Olena Bridger, Pat McLaughlin, Dean Holley, or Terry Miller. We're waiting!
Between The Bookshelves

This was my first hunting experience. I was hunting with a dance team and someone came up to me and said, "Excuse me, do you know anything about hunting?"

I told him I was just a beginner, but he asked me some questions about what I was going to do. Then he gave me some tips on how to prepare for the hunt.

On Being Unadjusted

I'm not a very adjusted person. I like to do things my own way, and I don't like to listen to other people's opinions. I think that's one of the things that makes me a good leader. I'm not afraid to make decisions on my own, and I don't care what other people think.

The Art of the Book

A critic can be one of the best friends a book has. They can help promote it, and they can help readers understand it better.

The Hunt

I'm a hunter, and I love hunting. It's a great way to get out into the wilderness and see all the beauty of nature. And it's also a great way to get some exercise.

On the Hunt

I'm a hunter, and I love hunting. It's a great way to get out into the wilderness and see all the beauty of nature. And it's also a great way to get some exercise.

The Runner's High

I've been a runner for years, and I love it. It's a great way to get some exercise and clear my mind.

The Hunt is a Marathon

Deer may have some affection for the hunter, but they are also very wary of him. They have been trained to be on guard all the time, and they will react to any threat.

The Run

We're running on a mission. It's a way to get some exercise and enjoy the outdoors. We're running for fun, but also for a good cause.

District 8 Roundup

A few weeks ago, the highschool basketball teams traveled to Clinchwood for a thrilling match-up that some have called the "Game of the Century." The game was a classic battle of two teams with outstanding players and a crowd of spectators who were treated to an exciting contest. The game did not disappoint, with both teams showcasing their skills and determination. In the end, Clinchwood emerged victorious, solidifying their position as a force to be reckoned with in District 8.

Clinch Valley College Sports

The Clinch Valley College basketball team has announced their schedule for the upcoming season. They will be participating in various tournaments and matches against some of the top teams in the region. The team is led by Coach Charles Wilson, who has been instrumental in guiding them to success. Fans are encouraged to support their team as they compete for the regional championship.

CVC Basketball sponsor for 1958-59

With the support of a local business, the CVC basketball team will have a new sponsor for the upcoming season. The sponsor, who is a long-time supporter of the team, has come forward with a generous donation to help fund the team's expenses. This partnership is expected to bring great benefits to the team, as it will provide them with the resources they need to excel on the court.

CVC Snack Bar

As part of their ongoing support for the CVC basketball team, the snack bar will be offering all the snacks and beverages needed to keep the players energized throughout the season. From popcorn to hot dogs, the snack bar has it all, and fans are encouraged to stop by and support their favorite team.

Hoop Prospects

It's "dribble" season again for Clinch Valley College. Despite past losses, the team is determined to make this year a success. As Coach Wilson puts it, "We believe in each other and are counting on our teamwork to bring us victory." The team will be working hard to improve their skills and策略, and fans are encouraged to support them as they take on the challenges of the season.

CVC Snack Bar

The CVC Snack Bar has announced a special offer for basketball fans. With a purchase of $10 or more, fans will receive a discount on their next visit. This is a great opportunity for fans to support the team while enjoying their favorite snacks and beverages.

Language Teachers At Georgia Meet by Tom Parke

The language teachers of Clinch Valley College were in Augusta, Georgia, the weekend of November 6th, attending the South Atlantic Modern Language Association at the Ben Eke Hotel. Miss Kegarvey attended meetings in Spanish and French. Professor Wilson, Mrs. Ghurney, and Mr. Gerome read papers on English literature, composition, and criticism. Dr. Hie, chairman of the English Department of the University of Michigan, spoke to the general session on "The Place of the Humanist in the Space Age." He implied that the best guide to the good life in the future for the young people of Georgia was knowledge. Teachers who know enough about the present to use their knowledge of the past, so as to correct present absurdities would make a good future.

Interesting papers on the Victorian poet suggested that the reputations of Tompkins, Browning, and Arnold will become more favorable, as people realize how much they have to contribute toward a good life in the future. Dr. J. r. Bailey, University of Nebraska, emphasized that the novels of Thomas Hardy turn on the chief character, leaving his allies the reliefs of their story.
