Retreat Plans For Future Work

Students Elect '59-60 Officers

Convocation To Be Held June 6

Clingford College will hold its final convocation for the academic year, on the grounds of the college, tomorrow afternoon, June 6, at 6:30 clock.

Dr. B. P. D. Runk, Dean of the University of Virginia, will preside, on behalf of the Seven Society of the University of Virginia, the president of the college, which is to be placed in the new Administrative Building, upon its completion, and will address the student body, their parent friends of CVC.

This convocation will specially honor the second-annaversary of F.T.A., many of whom will be transferring to various years at the University, for further study, and others who will be accepting positions on the local area staff of CVC.

The president of the Student Government will give a report on the activities of the student body for June.

Following the convocation, there will be an election for the president and the secretary-treasurer, and report of the Business Department.

The presidents of each school will be elected at a meeting of the Board of Trustees on the forthcoming Sunday afternoon.

The office of the principal, secretary, and treasurer will be elected in October, before the new freshman class arrives.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR ALL

The annual picnic was devoted especially to the ham baked by Mrs. Wheeler, and the delicious hamburgers and hot dogs, with all the fixings.

President-elect Tate

Dr. Runk spoke of the importance of never giving up, and the need for persistence. He emphasized the thought that the college has an obligation to the students, and that it is up to them to make the most of the opportunities offered.

The annual picnic was a success, with the ham, hamburgers, and hot dogs all being enjoyed by the students.

Library News

Now that the new Academic Building is nearing completion, it is time of our 19th Annual Reading Club. Located on the main floor of the new building, the Reading Club will be the perfect spot to read and discuss the latest books.

A group of drawings using cutouts and the same techniques as the original exhibit will be on display in the new exhibit. The drawings will be made from a minimum of 10-20 pieces and will be assembled using cardboard to build the base. The drawings will be made from small sheets of paper and will be assembled using cardboard to build the base. The drawings will be made from small sheets of paper and will be assembled using cardboard to build the base.

The problem of taking either the English or the French course has been increased by more than a few percent, which would make for more current times. All of the exhibits were produced by the staff of the English Department, with the exception of the final exhibit, which was produced by the staff of the Art Department.

New additions

The exhibits are much higher in quality and are more realistic. The exhibit will be in the new section of the English Department, but I believe that the exhibits in the Art Department will be much better. The exhibits in the Art Department will be much better.

END OF YEAR PICTURE

One of the events that will be attended by the members of the Chemistry Department will be a trip to the new Science Building. The Chemistry Department will be: Mrs. M. J. Davis, Mrs. J. B. Hooks, Miss E. H. Schaefer, and Mr. J. B. Hooks.

A prime responsibility of any teacher is to allow the students to share in their own learning experiences. The students will be given the opportunity to share in the learning experiences that they have had. A group of drawings using cutouts and the same techniques as the original exhibit will be on display in the new exhibit. The drawings will be made from a minimum of 10-20 pieces and will be assembled using cardboard to build the base.

Art at CVC

The Art College at Clifton Valley College has just hung the new student artwork in the new exhibit. The exhibit is located in the new student artwork wing and will be on display for the rest of the semester.
