There was then a total of 185 students. In a few hours. And nobody would even work up a sweat! Moved and In place on the shelving had worked out is:

We have both given an O. K. to theector Smlddy and Dean Jones decided that with a combination of moving 8,000 books from one year to another milestone to a school dedicated to the young men and women of Southwest Virginia. According to Dean Jones this will be approximately 170 new students. This gave a total of 229 students. The enrollment again took a real upsurge in enrollment. It was not possible to list all those who had formerly attended the college. The heating will not only provide heat for the building, but it will be expanded in such a way as to heat two additional buildings.

We should like, at this time, to express our appreciation to the leaders of the Commonwealth of Virginia for seeing the need, and to the people of the area for whom we could make this dream for our young people a reality. It would be impossible for us to list all those who had a part in the founding and designing of this institution of higher learning. We should like to express our appreciation to our parent bodies, especially the University. Architect: Johnson, Craven and Gibson, Charlottesville, Virginia. (See HOUSING Page 4)

New Members Are Named To CVC Faculty Staff

Two well-qualified faculty members have been added to the Clinch Valley College staff, according to an announcement made this week by CVC Director, Mr. Smlddy.

They are William John Hooper Jr., a native of Buffalo, N.Y., who will teach physics, and Miss Daphine Haynes of Glade Springs who will join the faculty as an instructor in chemistry.

Hooper graduated from Kenyon College high school second in a class of 428. He attended Berea College and was engaged in the professional music. He received his B. D. degree in physics in 1957. He received his M.D. degree in physics from Rensselaer in August.

As a graduate student, Hooper has had experience in instructing physics. (See FACULTY Page 4)

CVC Begins Sixth Year, Tuesday

Clinch Valley College will mark its sixth birthday Sept. 15, when its doors open for the 1959-60 school session, in the Addition of its new $600,000 academic building.

New students will report to the new building, to begin the orientation and testing program, on Tuesday. Second year students will report for registration, on Wednesday, Sept. 15.

College director Joe Smlddy said that 85 percent of the new students enrolled this year in the upper half of their graduating high school classes.

Social Club Forms

A Cotillion Club is being organized at CVC which will take over part of the responsibility of the old social committees. The purpose of the Cotillion Club will be that of planning and conducting free dances during the school year. As in the past, two of these dances will feature bands. It is hoped that small amounts can be engaged for many of the other three dances as possible. Whether it will be possible to have live music for all of the dances depends largely upon the funds that the Cotillion Club will be able to raise. Whether it will be possible to have live music for all of the dances depends largely upon the funds that the Cotillion Club will be able to raise. Whether it will be possible to have live music for all of the dances depends largely upon the funds that the Cotillion Club will be able to raise.

A committee has already been appointed to organize the Cotillion. Cotillion membership will be open to all students. Members will elect their officers and the various committees will be appointed.

Welcome

We of the Highland Cavalier would like to welcome each and every student to Clinch Valley College. We have many responsibilities at this time and I thought that this would be a good place to write a few words to you to help you get settled on campus.
