The Governor stated that Clinch Valley College was an experiment born when the University of Virginia made a similar experiment here. "Clinch Valley College will always have my support and understanding," he further stated that whenever he could, he would come to Clinch Valley College to see what work he could do for the people.

The Governor complimented the Student body who had appeared as musicians to Clinch Valley College because they saw what it would do for the people.

We notice stated the Student body, that Arden and others responsible for Clinch Valley College by their exceedingly generous work as they have gone on other serious students of this area have made their ability to succeed.

In conclusion, he stated that in 1964 because of the growth of the college it ceased to be superior.

Director Remmy then introduced another body in linguistics, Mrs. J. Lindsay Arden and the others, then read the Constitution of the University of Virginia, Mrs. Edith and Williams, Jr.

Still seeking the dedication of services refreshments were served in the lounge and downstairs.

ACHTUNG

The OVC German Club held its first organizational meeting on October 8. The President, Keith Johnson, opened the meeting by welcoming the members and then read the constitution to the Club. Each student introduced himself in the German language. The vote was followed by the election of the new officers.

Later refreshments consisting of punch and cookies were enjoyed by all, while the members discussed the year's program.

The first regular meeting was held on Thursday, October 15 during the activity period. An interesting film on Germany was shown.
