The professors elected to attend were: Professor Joa de Roobridge, President; Annette Pot, Secretary, and Lucretia Oives from Secretary-Treasurer. The club was host for a Western Jubilee, Friday night, November 8, 1960. The most delightful event of the night was the "German Fete" called by Cozly Wright. The guests enjoyed themselves with the playing of melodies on the piano and the recital planning and layout of an office. Also the students showed off their unique hospitality in all relations and places. The meeting of the Newman Club was held on November 17, 1959 at 12:00 P.M., in Mrs. Cross University. Visit Tenn. Eastman
Thirty CVC students spent a day with Mr. Wayne Eastman in Kingsport, where they participated in a workshop on office layout, were guests of the University for lunch, and later were given a tour of the administrative office, Personnel Department, Library, Photographic Department and Medical Department. The workshop was devoted to computer problems; Color, lighting, air-conditioning and noise and their relation to the planning and layout of an office; and forecasting future personnel decisions. Honor Committee Reporting—Students Must Cooperate
Our universities today carry large numbers of students, and the value is highly. One of the factors causing the increase in the Honor System. Clinch Valley is a branch of the University of Virginia and as such having the full weight of the University. The system was adopted as our own by the faculty of Virginia and adopted as our own by the faculty of Clinch Valley. The system is important to the Honor System to be efficient, total cooperation of the students is required. The cooperation can only be efficient if the students realize their responsibilities and uphold them. This means that every student must be familiar with the Honor System and the procedure by which the system operates.

In the near future, copies of the Honor System books will be distributed to every student. The books will contain the information needed to understand the system and the procedure. Each student should keep his copy in a safe place. The students must understand the system and the procedure. Each student should keep his copy in a safe place. A REPORT FROM
The Dean

It is with a great deal of satisfaction that the Honor System at CLV is presented. This system is being fostered by the students themselves and is one of the many achievements of the college that makes us proud.

The Honor System is based on the principle of self-governance and the idea that the students are responsible for their own conduct. It is a system designed to promote integrity, honesty, and respect among the students.

The system includes a Code of Conduct, which outlines the expectations for behavior. It is enforced by the students themselves through a system of self-reporting and peer review.

The Honor System has been in operation for several years, and it continues to evolve and improve. It is a reflection of the dedication of the students to creating a positive learning environment.

The Honor System is supported by the faculty and administration, who recognize its importance in shaping the character of our students.

We are proud of the progress that has been made, and we look forward to continuing to build on this foundation as we prepare our students for success in the world.

Dear Henrietta:

I'm a 19-year-old girl who entered college. I have never had a date before, until this past week. I don't know anything about boys and don't pretend to.

What I'm worried about is, all my date wanted to do is play sneaky-doo-ma-such (as they call it), and I'm scared. Do you think he's abnormal?? I would like to know what to do in a case like this, scared.

Dear Scared:

Just sit tight and send me his address and phone No. Henrietta

Dear Henrietta:

I am a girl 19 years of age and attending Clinic Valley College. I am a beautiful, well-mannered and intelligent. I have a nice figure and I think I am an asset to just about anyone company. You have met a few people here at C.V.C. who think they are better than I am. Do you think they're conned? Anxious.

Dear Anxious:

Yes, I think they are conned. Everyone is not as modest as you think.

Henrietta

Dear Henrietta:

Every time a boy brings me home from a date, he wants to come in with me. But my parents aren't so loudly that I am embarrassed.

What shall I do? Perplexed Froster

Dear Perplexed:

As long as they are sorting they are asleep (I think). What are you worrying about? Have fun kids.

Henrietta

Dear Henrietta:

I am a girl at C.V.C. and one of my professors pinches me in the halls. Please advise on what I can do. Should I discontinue it or what?

Ernest Student

Just be glad he doesn't pinch you any place else. Anything for a mark.

Henrietta

Informal Informer

If everybody quite "goofing off" at C.V.C., this column will go to "goot, do nothing anything". The informal informer's informes are everywhere. In these words, "Big Brother is watching you." You can't win for losing. In this column we shall explore the fascinating world of make-up. To begin with, one should apply make-up in such a fashion as to create the effect of no make-up at all. This procedure, takes much diligent practice and should be done over and over again before a well-lighted or naturally lit mirror. Make-up is the all-important aspect of one's ensemble. In the case of young college women, their natural beauty needs little assistance in the way of cosmetics. Therefore Puck should become the most important factor for them. It is the most easily applied and most mis-used of any item of make-up. Lipstick should match as nearly as possible, the color scheme of one's costume and skin tone. Use your make-up in such a manner as to flatter your personality, for after all, your make-up is your make-up.
