CVC Students Enjoy First Big Snow And A Welcome Res

The month of December really did bring winter weather in with it. Most of the students at C.V.C. were certainly thankful for the deep blanket of snow that covered everything during the first week of this month. It was the last day of school to be ended for this semester, and due to the busy schedules of everyone, the day's rest attempt to be well accepted.

The great portion of the snow fell on Wednesday until almost six inches had accumulated. By Wednesday night everything outdoor was buried and all activities were called off. Due to the fact that the temperature climb wasn't too low, weather conditions were just right for snow play as did the normal students to vividly demonstrate.

On Thursday the temperature shined down but snow was carried as usual. However, after another day of snow and another night of freezing weather, the clouds began icy and allow for has chasers were dismissed from their opportunity of going home early and trampled the doorstep sidewalks just the same. Others spent a lazy day of doing nothing and another he smart students spent the day catching up in their homework.

Girls Dormitory To Play Hostess To The Faculty

On Thursday, December 30, the faculty is invited to the girls dormitory on Monday until 5:30. The girls will show off their newly decorated rooms and make refreshments. The rooms have been decorated in the Whistler theme for guests and the dormitory has known to be special hostess of a party, the residence hall has shown her guest through her dormitory and her experiments will be served to all.

CVC Proud In Having One Of Only Judo Clubs In SW Va.

This year for the first time in the history of CVC, or for that matter, the history of Southwest Virginia region, we have a CVC Judo Club. The club welcomes the Kukukan methods of Judo. The club was founded only a short while ago, but there are no members who have nothing higher than white belt (first white belt). New members are always welcome to come to practice sessions which are held every Tuesday and Thursday between 11:00 and 1:45 in the gymnasium. The club has shown at this time, practice sessions on Monday and Wednesday, and Friday between 11:00 and 1:45. It is necessary to attend the full session to be a club member but any part of the full session during which you are free, both men and women, may join.

As stated before, this is the first club of its kind in this area, and therefore, it is probable that the members are the ones who will have the advantage with Judo. First, it is its name implies, a "gentle art". That is not too strenuous for anyone. The club is called "Judo Club" which means that its techniques can be used. Contributions mittens, mufflens and earmuffs should be; but, and this is the essence of Judo, it is the essence of giving, and giving includes caring for the needs of another family.

How many of us stop to think of the many people in our area who will have no Christmas to open. The Judo club would like to give some things to make the Christmas of these people as happy and cheerful as possible. It is more than some children can say. And that is what we shall bring to the club.

This project has a room for which will have at least a few of these people. We are sponsoring a sort of Christmas tree. This is a Christmas tree that instead of being decorated with lights and tinsel will be decorated with wash clothes for the underprivileged children of the area. The Judo club is asking every member which needs the co-operation of every member of the faculty. We need contributions of children's clothing to decorate the tree, including pajamas, nightgowns, mittens, mufflers and earmuffs. There will be an article of warm children's clothes put on the tree, and the contributions can be put on the tree.

Minutes Of Dec. Student Council Meet

The Student Council met Dec. 11, 1962 at the regular meeting in the office of the Student Union and attended by Mr. Smiddy and Mr. Hooper were the faculty members who attended the session. The minutes of the last meeting were dispensed of. The next open business was to decide upon the officers of the Student Council. The Circle K Club had decided to start the Student Council and in so doing "Campus Violation Police". However, after a period of discussion, the Council members unanimously disapproved of this. It was then decided to ask the attention of the President of the Student Council in which the situation has improved since September, and it was thought that the student body might respect the student council in order to be of aid in the operation of the Student Council.

Hats Go Off To The Women Of The Faculty

The faculty and faculty wives have tried so hard to improve our appearance, to keep this school to the standards of a modern college. All our efforts to improve our appearance are for not, if we do not look up to our standards. Many of the students of CVC have been criticized for their lack of pride in appearance. The majority of students of CVC are not proud of their appearance, and it should again.

Clothes when you try to dust off ashes and you get ashes on your hands. Then when you take your books during a class or to take a test? If you have no pride in our institution, you should at least know that you are needed there.

Another Mass Murder

Once again, when classes end, students leave the classrooms and go home. Many of them will not return to CVC. In other words most students of our classrooms and innocent to the work that they have done. Without their help, we would have had no class. Without them, we would have had no school.

Detectives still have a need for publicity in order to attract attention, and they decided to start visiting various high schools, beginning the second semester, and to let the officers of the schools and colleges represent the college. Mr. Henson assured us that the transportation would be available. He also mentioned that the college would be willing to help students who were unable to pay for their own expenses, but outside attitudes are formed around the college. As students at OVC can help by being specially designated students, or by asking questions are asked concerning the academic and extra-curricular programs.

Although most of the informal parties have been successful it seems that they are becoming too numerous with not enough variety. Several programs were made that would help to provide more variety, one of which would have something to participate in besides dancing. Things such as a Vietnamese style political dance, organized a game in a jazz band, and a rock parade, and part parties were discussed. Also, we want to encourage other clubs, such as the dance groups, to organize extra-curricular programs.

The Joint - Student - Faculty Senate meeting of the BSU was attended by several students, and the meeting was adjourned.

The winter weather continued to be cold, but not enough to keep the students from going out to enjoy the evening. The next day was a Sunday and the students had the day off. The walls were covered with snow, and the yard of the girls dorm was covered with a thick layer of snow. The dormitory students staged an "all-out" snow ball fight in the yard of the girls dorm. The officers of the schools and colleges were present, and they had a good time. The dormitory students were unwillingly drawn into the fight, and they joined in the fun. It was a great time! Clutching her purse, she hastened to the gate to watch the fun. Unconsciously she put her hand on her purse. Suddenly a quiet voice spoke, "Hello, Pat." She turned around and saw her friend, Jo Pratt. She asked her how she was doing, and she said that she was fine. "Do you want to come with me? You know, mum's aren't allowed to travel alone."

The Chesu Club met December Meet December Meet, during the holiday period. Several members and their advisor, Mr. Wilson, were present. President Rex Pennington presided over the meeting. The entire meeting consisted of Mr. Wilson's talk about the Chesu Club as an organization. During the talk Mr. Wilson told them that in order to get a Chesu team to compete with other Chesu teams, particularly the one in Charlotteville, that more interest is needed. People should be more interested in the Chesu Club, and they should participate in the activities. The Chesu Club plans to meet on Monday nights at 8 p.m. to discuss the activities of the club.
