Ralph Stanley, Glenn Roberts In Feb. 27th Hoedown

Ralph Stanley and the Clinch Mountain Boys, along with Glenn Roberts and the Rolling Firestorms, will perform at Clinch Valley College on February 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the Jefferson Lounge. Admission will be $1.00 per person, which can be paid at the door.

This program is sponsored by the Appalachian Student Services and the Appalachian Seminar of Clinch Valley College.

Ralph Stanley was born in rural southwestern Virginia and learned to play the banjo from his mother. It was her inspiration and natural talent that led Ralph and his guitar playing brother, Carter to form the Stanley Brothers in the early 1960's. The two played on local radio stations and were soon in demand for appearances throughout the south; later the rest of the country and the world. The Stanley Brothers' appeal was that they performed the material that was closest to the hearts of mountain people.

On December 1, 1966, tragedy struck and Carter Stanley died ending the career of The Stanley Brothers. Ralph continued on with the formation of his group; The Clinch Mountain Boys.

For a long-time country music fans, or the uninitiated, Ralph and The Clinch Mountain Boys will provide a rewarding program of old-time country music. Also performing on the same stage will be Glenn Roberts and the Rolling Firestorms. The Firestorms got their initial start in 1972, when Glenn and the group met frequently for informal jam sessions. Two years ago, the group began their radio program which is on three stations in southwest Virginia and two in eastern Kentucky.

The coming of these two fine groups of musicians to Clinch Valley College will provide a great evening of entertainment for all.

To Churchill Joe Smiddy, co-director of the Appalachian Seminar, indicated the public would be cordially welcome to attend.

Cool Hand Luke...

Luke Jackson (Paul Newman) is arrested for vandalism of parking meters, and placed in a Southern correctional workcamp. Proud and defiant in spite of handicaps, Luke escapes twice, but both times he is captured and punished. The third time, he is shot to death. His violent death was more due to his naive, bravado stance than to any real crime.

The public is cordially welcome to attend.

Atricious Shooting Proves Cavalettes Downfall

By: Danny Wood

Stunned fans left Greear Gymnasium today after witnessing the complete destruction of their competent Cavalettes. Virginia Intermont came to Clinch Valley with only one game to play. Many people expected it to be a long night for U.I. Even before the game, proud CVC fans were offering bets of Virginia Intermont and 10 to 1 that V.I. would lose. What these fans didn’t anticipate was that the Cavalettes would fall on only 25 percent of their field goals! As the game started, Pat Thompsen for being graceful was allowing Danny to see him as pray.

The scene is at Greear Gymnasium for the start of the Virginia Intermont-Cavaliers basketball game. Let’s join the action.

Everyone sat in anticipation of the jump ball when referee Pat Thompson suddenly halted the game. It seemed that the Virginia Intermont-Cinch was complaining over Clinch Valley having too many girls on the court. After a floor check, sure enough was this statement true.
