Students To Vote On Honor Constitution Changes

The Honor Court meeting in a special business session last week accepted several proposals submitted by Court Chairman C. Dale Stanley which would amend the Honor System Constitution. Most of Chairman Stanley's recommendations were mere corrections and clarification in the present Constitution. Two proposals however, reflect major changes in the Honor System's procedural methodology.

The first of these proposals of major consequence deals with the omission in the Constitution of a written trial procedure in favor of allowing the Honor Court to establish its own procedures each year. In presenting the proposal and Stanley argued that all civil courts establish their own procedures and are thus flexible to most all possible needs.

In the other major issue discussed by the Court, the question of what would be the result of failing to obey an Honor Court order was raised. The Court ultimately decided to follow the suggestion of its Chairman and remove the provision which contends that failure to honor a subpoena would constitute a breach of the Honor System.

Both of the aforementioned questions and the other changes suggested by Stanley will be presented to the student body for ratification on March 27th.

Gary Burns, Senior representative on the Court, was the only dissenting vote in favor of allowing the Honor Court to establish its own procedures and the other changes suggested by Stanley will be presented to the student body for ratification on March 27th. Burns argued that the Honor System was difficult enough to understand without the added insecurity of not having the Court's trial procedure on paper for the defendants to see.

Dorm Counselor To Be Chosen

The Office of the Dean of Students is now accepting applications for positions as student dormitory counselors. Six students (three men, three women) will be chosen for McCravy Hall and two for Randolph Hall. Applications may be picked up at the office of the Dean of Students and must be submitted no later than March 21. The applicants will be interviewed by a selection committee and decisions will be announced prior to April 12.

The author of this year's play, Mr. Lewis conceived the idea of children's drama at CVC and this is his second original script. "The Dollygagger of Landsberg" or "The Day the Queen Lost her Beautiful Face" is a fantasy about vasty in three acts. Vain people become dollygaggs and are forced to live on the other side of the mirror in the castle of rules. The play contains much tomfoolery and farce, but it has a moral lecture.

School children benefit from these plays. The plays are the only source they have for live drama and they come free of charge. Production expenses are paid from the ticket sales of the college's major productions. Tickets on the performance are: Wise, Coeburn, East Stone Gap, Tazewell, St. Paul, Appalachia, Big Stone Gap, Whitleyburg, Ky., and possibly Pound. Hood dates are March 25-26.

Drama, as an other activities on campus, suffers from the current apathy. Male actors are needed for music roles and crew members are desired to work with costumes.

Anyone interested in donating a small amount of time to help in this production should contact Mr. Charles Lewis.

CVC will experience the biggest week of social activity since Homecoming Week this weekend. Beginning the festivities will be a Coffee House sponsored by the Baptist Student Union and featuring the ever-popular C.T. Pillerhoff in Concert. The Coffee House will be held on Thursday, March 14, in the Jefferson Lounge beginning at 8:30 p.m. Admission is only a $1.00.

On Friday, March 15, things will swing into action again as the CVC Colony of Phi Sigma Kappa will offer "Hot Ahh!" in a Jefferson Lounge dance beginning at 9:00 p.m. This dance will serve as the finale to the raffle of a ten-speed bike, proceeds from which will go to help pay the induction fees of the new Phi Sig pledge class. The winner of the bike will be announced sometime during the dance.

Saturday, March 16, brings the long awaited Rory Gallagher, "Grin", and "Jada". Concert sponsored by the Student Council. Gallagher is described by leading critics as one of the "world's finest guitarists". His style is said to be reminiscent of B.B. King and Chuck Berry. "Grin", on the other hand, is described as a group deeply influenced by the advent of country-rock. Creedence Clearwater Revival and Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young are the groups most associated with the style of "Grin". The group, led by Nils Lofgren, is also noted for the dynamic style of its five performances. "Jada", while still relatively unknown in many ways, promises to be a rising star on the horizon.

Admission to the three band "concert will be $5 per person in advance and $5.50 at the door. The action will begin at 8:00 p.m. in the Fred B. Greear Gymnasium. Tickets are on sale from any Student Council member or at the receptionist's office of the new Administration Building.

CVC is having a Movie Night for the Anti-Stripping Movement. The College wishes to bring awareness about the issue of strip mining to the community. The movie will be held in the Student Center on Friday, May 12th, at 7:00 PM.

Prominent Leaders To Testify at Strip Mining Hearings

A three-day hearing on the impact of strip mining on people, the land of Appalachia and the energy crisis will be held by the Senate and Capitol leaders March 16-18 at the Capitol. The hearing is being conducted by the Committee on Natural Resources and Energy, which is chaired by Senator Barbara Mikulski. The panel will produce a report on the impact of strip mining on the environment and the role of the federal government in regulating the practice.

Financial Aid Applications Due

Federal and state regulations require all students who receive financial assistance for the current academic year to submit new financial aid applications. Applications for the upcoming academic year must be submitted by May 31st. Application materials may be submitted by mail, online, or in person. Failure to submit new financial aid applications may result in the loss of eligibility for financial aid.

Sophomores Eligible For Grants

Basic Education opportunity grants will be available to all full-time students who have not completed their sophomore year. Students who meet the eligibility requirements and apply for the grant will be considered for funding. The grant will be awarded based on financial need.
