A Meeting Of The Minds

SCA meet Uncle Sam? I thought that both of you should get to know each other. You both have, relatively, the same interests and common bonds.

Uncle Sam: "SCA, what do you think?"

"Well, Uncle Sam, we represent people."

Uncle Sam: "Yes, SCA, go back and try to represent your constituents."

Uncle Sam: "Hey, Sam, I think I'll give it a try."

"Well, it's been a real pleasure."

This was just a littletesus, SCA. Uncle Sam says that every other organization must be made to blend the equal to their constituents."

SCA: "Yes, SCA, go back and try to represent your constituents."

Spring, an organization that would not be expected to receive. The very effort gets investment.

Uncle Sam: "That's the true. Why don't you go back and talk about the things that you've done and you're going to do?"

SCA: "Well, Uncle Sam, we've done a lot of things already."

Uncle Sam: "Well, I wish I had that, but I'm busy with other things."

Uncle Sam: "SCA, why don't you go back and talk about the things that you've done and you're going to do?"

SCA: "Well, all we're going to do is talk about the things that we've done and we're going to do."

Hats Off To (Roy) Harper

Hats Off To (Roy) Harper

By: Roy Harper

There was a man who had a dog named Sparky, a dog he loved very much. Sparky was always by his side, whether he was going for a walk or just hanging around the house. One day, as they were walking in the park, Sparky began to run towards the owner of another dog, who was much bigger and badder. The owner of the other dog laughed and said, "Oh, that's my dog, Bandit. He's always trying to meet new friends." The man was embarrassed, but he thought it was cute how Sparky always tried to make friends.

The next day, as they were walking in the park again, Sparky ran towards a man who was playing frisbee with his own dog, who was also bigger and badder. The owner of the other dog laughed and said, "Oh, that's my dog, Max. He's always trying to join in on the fun." The man was embarrassed, but he thought it was cute how Sparky always tried to make friends.

As they were walking in the park again, Sparky ran towards a man who was riding his bike with his own dog, who was also bigger and badder. The owner of the other dog laughed and said, "Oh, that's my dog, Rocky. He's always trying to keep up with the pace." The man was embarrassed, but he thought it was cute how Sparky always tried to make friends.

The man realized that Sparky was just trying to make friends, and he was happy to see how much fun his dog was having. He thought it was a good thing for Sparky to meet new friends, and he was glad that Sparky was always trying to make new friends.
Alice Lloyd Stomped ... Women Go Wild!!!

This looks like Clinch Valley College's year for volleyball, as both sides of the fence. Up to this time the men sported a record of 3-2 and compliment this the women opened their season with an unbelievable offensive display as they wrecked Alice Lloyd 72-22.

The Big Red Machine jumped off in a quick lead as they ran their total to 7-12 at the half. Led by the shooting of Nancy Jones and Freshman Kathy Morgan, CVC increased their lead quickly and ended in the rest of the way. With a lot of new faces minus Robin "Moon Pie" Robinson, the women looked good.

Terry Austin and Geri Wallace led the team with strong rebonding.

The women shot for a hot 40 percent, good in anybody book, as they held Alice Lloyd to 19 percent shooting.

This is the first year they have played in the fall semester. Coaching the team or their 3rd season are Toby Myers and Marilyn Pace.
