Woodwind Quintet To Appear

The Gladeville Council of the Performing Arts is pleased to announce the third program in its 1974-75 concert season.

The Faculty Woodwind Quintet will perform at 3 p.m., Sunday, February 9, in the Drama Building of Clinch Valley College at Wise, Virginia. The Quintet is made up of members of the faculty from Western Carolina University at Cullowhee, North Carolina, and will present a program of classic and contemporary music.

Tickets will be sold at the door. Adult tickets are $2.00 and student tickets are $1.00.

University. Clinch Valley started well and stayed close throughout the game but were hampered with the loss of John Fall and Pete Vance in the second half. Fall went out only minutes into the second half with a badly sprained ankle and Vance fouled out with still 10:06 left in the game. Turk Bond replaced Fall and Fred Gose took over for Vance as they played their hearts out for their team. With Bond harassing the outside shooters with his quick jobs on defense Gose took over the rebounding duties as he hauled down nine big misfires. Andy Kersey spurred on by a starting position this night once again kept the team on their toes from fear of being hit with one of his crisp passes. Andy handed out fourteen assists while ringing the bell for ten points of his own. The offense was once again led by Terry Myers and Major Griffey as they both pumped in thirty-two big points. With Myers hitting outside and Griffey scoring inside, the Cavaliers fought back and was down only two points at 85-83 with less than two minutes to go. From this point the much taller Railsplitters took over as the final score read L.M.U.-93; C.V.C. 87.

Although none should feel good when they lose, the Cavaliers should not feel bad over this loss. They fought gamely with two starters out of the lineup in the second half, and still just barely came up short. L.M.U. is always tough at home but nine times out of ten, the Cavaliers 87 points would be good enough to win. C.V.C. may have lost the game but they won the respect of L.M.U.

Scoring:

Myers-32; Fall-2; Vance-4; Johnson-2; Griffey-32; Gose-5; Kersey-10; Bond-0.

Rebound Leaders:

Gose-9; Griffey-9

Assist Leader:

Kersey-14

Student Council Minutes

January 23

Present: Connie Puckett, Roy Baker, Earlene Horne, Pat Thompson, Donna Niles, Rita Jo Ring, Lynn Mullins, Craig Runyan.

Absent: Mike Shupe, Jackie Puckett, Mamie Yates, Jackie Christain, Adrain Birmingham, Charlotte Phillips, Ray Light, Carol Tompson.

Students not eligible for Standing Committees:

1. Student Aid-Pat Kennedy;
2. Publications-Karen Drumm;
3. Discipline & Judiciary-John Clark;
4. Election Commission-John Clark.

Due to the graduation of Karen Osborne, a Senior Representative needs to be appointed.

The Senior Representative position held by Carol Tompson is in question. Because of her withdrawal for classes last semester, her position on the council is in question. At the next meeting a decision will be made to accept her back to the position of Sr. Rep. or not.

When the Academic Appeals Committee met this year, the students on this Committee were not informed. Earlene Horne and Emily Paxton are the student representatives to this Committee. According to Sharon Daniels, they were supposedly notified by phone as to the meeting. A question now arises as to the legality of students receiving other students permanent records because of the new Buckley Amendment. A Committee was formed consisting of Ray Baker, Earlene Horne, and Connie Puckett to meet with the Chancellor about this matter.

Mr. Humphreys requests that this year's SCA print a handbook for next fall's semester. Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Rita Jo Ring

January 29

Present: Roy Baker, Rita Jo Ring, Roy Light, Mamie Yates, Adrian Birmingham, Charlotte Phillips, Pat Thompson, Lynn Mullins, Earlene Horne, Jackie Puckett, Mike Shupe.

Absent: Vickie Christain, Donna Niles, Connie Puckett
Concerning Senior representatives on the council: The President, Roy Baker, requested that a new person be appointed to replace the position held by Carol Tompson. The council agreed to appoint someone to fill Carol's position. Another senior will be appointed to replace Karen Osborne who graduated in December. Suggestions for appointees will be accepted at the next meeting.

The BSU Constitution and the Student Nurses Constitution will be voted on at the next meeting.

The band "Devil John" has been in contact with the SCA about being scheduled for dances on Campus. Their payment request for such dances is a 60-40 percent payment of the profits. Mike Shupe suggests that we accept the band for a dance. Lynn Mullins makes a motion to contract the "Devil John" group for a dance. Mike Shupe seconds the motion. Votes 9 for-0 against February 6 is the date set for the dance. The time will be from 9 o'clock until 12. Earlene Horne is in charge of filling out the necessary request forms from the administration concerning the dance.

Pat Thompson suggests that the council have a raffle to increase the council's funds.

Adrian Birmingham suggests that the SCA try to have built a new Clinch Valley College sign for the college to replace the old one in front of the Administration Building. Adrian will secure estimates from area businesses as to the cost of this project.

At the next meeting, graduation announcements will be selected from the Josten Company.

The next meeting will be February 5 at 4 p.m., room Z 109.

Meeting adjourned.

Colleges may publish directory information concerning an individual student if the student does not request his/her information to be withheld.

Vance Victim Of Circumstances

The Highland Cavalier would like to apologize to Pete Vance for the recent mess up in the paper over his basketball statistics. It was listed in the paper that Pete led the team in bad shots with 16 but it should have read - Vance leads the team in blocked shots with 16.

Pete was just completely left out of last weeks C.V.C. roundup. The Highland Cavalier is very sorry this happened as it was a misprint by the editor on the original sheet. Sorry about that Pete! Keep up the good work.

CVC's J. Myers scores on a 1-1

Pete Vance warms up for tough game.

Fred Gese top notch rebounder.
