Clinch Valley College Theatre Presents:

Fire Student-Directed One Acts

On Tuesday, October 21, the Highland Players will sponsor an evening of one-act plays directed by C.V.C. theatre students.

The program will open with Eliza and the Lexicon by Robert A. Greene - a charming story of a young girl who believes that she can get her mute brother to speak by working a hex on him. It is being directed by Cheri Wagner who captivated local theatregoers, with her sensitive portrayal of Sadie Thompson in Rain last spring. The title role will be played by Frankie Zickafoose, the ch...

Merrit, a new and very promising young actor.

Here We Are will be followed by Tennessee Williams' The Long Story Cat Short - a one-acter known to moviegoers under the title Baby Doll. It is being directed by Russel Elliot. Jewell Worley - the irascible old Mrs. Bramson of Night Must Fall - will play Baby Doll. Rob Widener will play Archie Lee. Patsy Trent will round out the cast as Aunt Rose.

The last two shows of the evening will be directed by Rob Widener and David Mulkins.

Play by Julio Matas - a comedy of the grotesque dealing with the dreams and scented frustrations of a trio of old ladies played by Miss Worley, Miss Zickafoose, and - another aspiring young actress making her initial stage appearance: Sharon Daniels, secretary to the Academic Dean of the College.

The general public is cordially invited to attend. Children are, of course, welcome - but because of the adult nature of a couple of the plays, parental discretion is advised. There will be no charge for admission. The curtain will rise at 8 p.m. sharp, and latecomers will be seated only between individual plays.

Also be watching for advertising and announcements concerning Mary Chase play, Harvey to be presented Dec. 2,3,4,5,6,7.

C.V.C. Women Split Three Team Match

CVC's women's volleyball team defeated Virginia Intermont in the first match and later, the same day fell victim to Radford's netters, in a three team, double match day at Fred Greer Gymnasium.

CVC found it hard to get started in the first game in the best two out of three games match as VI immediately jumped to a 5-1 lead. But our ladies of the net were not disheartened, but inspired as they controlled the ball, the play, and VI while roaring back to take the game at 15-5.

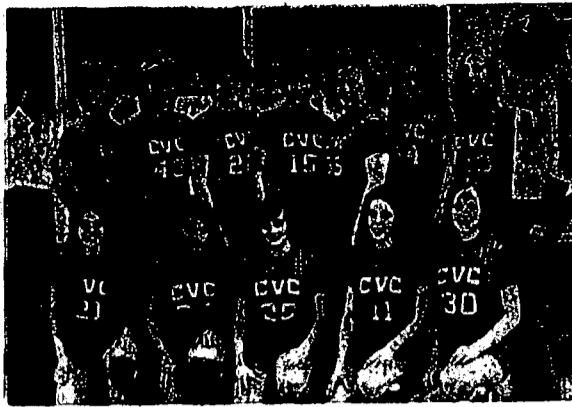

The second game was a complete about face as VI revenged the first game loss by defeating CVC 15-6. Their revenge seemed sweeter and sweeter as the third and final game VI closed to a 14-8 count when Coach Doris Kilgore and company rose to the occasion to again command the game. To the fans delight CVC flashed 8 straight points to win the much deserved, match by 15-14.

After Radford defeated VI it was time again for CVC to take the floor. The first game of this match reflected the flash and fire of the inspired play of the first match. Radford, maybe somewhat psyched-out, could only manage 7 points as CVC was the victor.

As quickly as the inspiration arrived, for CVC's Women, it left. CVC could only manage 2 points in the second game and 3 in the final game of the match

She was a beautiful new flower that I would nurture and care for all these years. I watched her grow, beaming like a proud parent. But as she developed into maturity, I knew I had lost her. She was no longer a part of me, but belonged to the rest of the world. The world showed its appreciation by the black and blue puncture marks in her long, slender arms. And like any flower denied the loving rays of sunlight, she wilted and died. By: Ben Rasnic
