Ford Sat On A Wall

Due to an ovarwhelittln| popular deirant, comrade Iffi has agreed to infiltrate down (he trail aenws lbe DHZ to once again bestow liis wisdom on CVC. So aD you lUddles out (here in Rlghtwing land be quick to read on.

Great ekangee have taken place in the world since this column last appeared in this spot. So lbwe is aneed fbr some catdiing up. As those of you who reed the paper know, llic BHC regularly calls on ole Pigskfii Peteto survey the tocal football situation: Well, this week the Highland Cavalier and myseU have caUedion PigsUnrsbuddy, Peeking Pete, to $IM tq) the Intematibnal situatkm.

Angela: After IB years of fighting the Portuguese imperialists, the Angtrian peopto are scheduled for independence on 11 November'. However the most dangerous enemy in the world, Soviet social imperialism has fanned the flames of Internal conflict among the three lberatkm groups. The result Is a Moody civil war between the Moscow backed MPLA, the FLNA, and UNITA. The «id result wUl see either a violent protracted struggle with the eventual viaiory of MPLA or the partition of Angola into two.. sUtes. In any case. Soviet Fasdro will' sink iU claws de«aper into Africa while the real hMers will be the Angolan people.

Portugal: Another battle shaping up In the big Eight is Portugal which dally sees sklrmishe* between its first string lbe moderate, socialist, communist and far leftgroMpi.

Here also is Russian revisionism making its presence felt as the KremUninas sent its first string cadres to Usbon in an stcmpt tocall the plays in PORTugal's future. However, they will not succeed in graapfaig Portugal within

The Highland Cavalier Needs A Editor

Bilth Of An Idea

For those of you who prefer (he hard core diatribes of last year, have faith and read on.

As election day draws near, this writer would like to make a comment on the rising aemndo of partisan pontics that are to be observed. Partisan warfarchas escalated to such a point that (be major parties do not even bother to trot out that shop worn phrade of vote fm-theraan, not JhB; n«ly, "J M t e opeteturged to vote for this party or that party (straii^t licket of course) and in fact may even be accused of disloyalty to America should he vote for the wrong party candidate. Not minding to stoop lo any level of perfidy, the parties let no opportunity to villity the opposition while beating their own drum slip throu^ their fliigers. One party is prattling on about an asnisinatton! that transpired over ten years no while another party is ranting about peace with honour and sliaking hands in space: the wh(rie lime America is being carted to Hell In a wheelbarrow.

John Kennedy sakl." those who make peaceful revdutton impossible, will make vkilent revolution inevitable." Parllsanism- cannot even make peaceff)! reform, much less peaceful revolution^ Members of this or that party have stopped at nothing short of murder In order to assure a victory for theb- party; For ail their carrying on; one would lhlrik thst there is an actual Hiffereifce'buwffj^ the parties, when In - faci the^caTy^aff- ference Is the way their names are spelled. In fact, had it not been for the worst kind of partlsanism, he would stUl be president.

Thus it scans that vtoloit revnlutkm be lneivable. It's too late for this article to be a warning. Rather It should be looked upon as an obituary of American democracy. You have not witnessed a tragic chapter in the history of a nation as the partisans would have you believe: youihaveseen death of 0 nation and all that will never be.

Women's Volleyball Team Record

Fred B. Greear Gymnasium was filled with many tense and exciting moments, Monday night, as CVC's volleyball team fought diligently to beat both Sullins and Tusculum.

In the opening game of the evening, Sullins won a close one 15-13; however, CVC was not to be underrated and came back to win the next two games 15-13, 15-10. Debbie Barnett helped to lead the team to victory by scoring 19 points on her serve during the three games.

In the three way match, Sullins and Tusculum took the court next, and Sullins was the victor 15-4, 15-11.

Anticipating an easy victory, CVC took the floor and beat Tusculum the first game 15-5. All concentration seemed to go to the other side of the net as Tusculum came roaring back to win the second game 15-8.

CVC's team got their heads on again for the third game and finally won the match 15-6. In the third game of the match Sue Cochran boomed in 13 serves to lead the team in the victory. Sue Cochran, Debbie Barnett, and Geri Lynn Wallace all were outstanding during the evening's competition.

This was the last home match for the season. The team will be traveling to Radford, Sullins, VPI and SU, Hollins, College Milligan for a Small College Tournament. The team record now stands at 3 wins and 3 losses.

The team and coaches would like to take this opportunity to say thanks for your support and encouragement, and help in making the home matches run smoothly. A special thanks to Dean Allen and Dr. Daniel for their help!
