ZIGGY STARDUST CLINCHES DIVISION A CHAMPIONSHIP

By Jerry Kilgore

The game was billed a showdown of "things to come" in the future. Ziggy Stardust placed its unblemished record up against Division contender Who, sporting a 3-1 record. However, Ziggy Stardust came away with a 60-38 victory and a Division A regular season championship.

The victory didn't prove to be too easy. Who jumped out to a 16-8 lead and all looked bad for Ziggy Stardust. However, following a timeout Ziggy Stardust outscored Who 27-4 in the rest of the half and walked away with a 35-20 halftime lead.

Defense proved to be to the advantage of Ziggy Stardust as they allowed Toby Taylor, the Men's league leading scorer, only five points. In addition they allowed the second leading scorer only 10 points.

In the second half Ziggy Stardust continued to roll as they outscored Who 25-18 and thus walked away with a 60-38 victory.

The game was put on protest by Dean Lee, a member of the game, when he charged referees with bad calling.

The game scorers are as follows:

Who	Ziggy Stardust
Paige	10
Dixon	8
Lee	1
Schiffilin	14
Taylor	5

Superstars Take Division B Title

By Jerry Kilgore

The Superstars clinched the Division B regular season title as they beat TBX I 65-68. However, the Superstars' victory did not come as easily as those in the past. The Superstars were losing 32-18 with only five minutes left to play in the first half. At this point it appeared that the Superstars had finally been beaten as almost all were certain of a TBX I win.

As many know, the odds are sometimes overcome. The Superstars' defense baffled TBX I offense for the remainder of the half and when the halftime buzzer had sounded the Superstars were only losing by 7 points, 32-25.

In the second half the Superstars' offense finally came up to par. The Superstars' outscored their opponent 40-26 in the second half to walk away with a 65-68 win and a Division B regular season title.

On Wednesday night the Superstars defeated DDDH 82-63 to finish the regular season undefeated. The scorers for the Superstars-TBX I game are as follows:

Superstars	TBX I
Gibson	16
Jervis	20
Ritchie	4
Skeen	6
Sutherland	8
Thomas	2
Capell	9
	65
Grosso	18
Henry	2
Hudson	20
Hunt	12
