Smiddy Named As 1981 Laureate

Joseph C. Smiddy, Chancellor of Clinch Valley College, has been named as one of the 1981 Laureates of the Virginia Cultural Laureate Center. He joins a group of 25 eminent Virginians who will receive medallions and be officially installed in an October 1 ceremony.

Smiddy's honor is bestowed for his having achieved excellence in endeavors which have added to the quality of life for all. The Cultural Laureate Center is composed of, and supported by, outstanding citizens from throughout the Commonwealth, including Former Governor Mills E. Godwin, Jr. and former speaker of the House of Delegates John Warren Cooke.

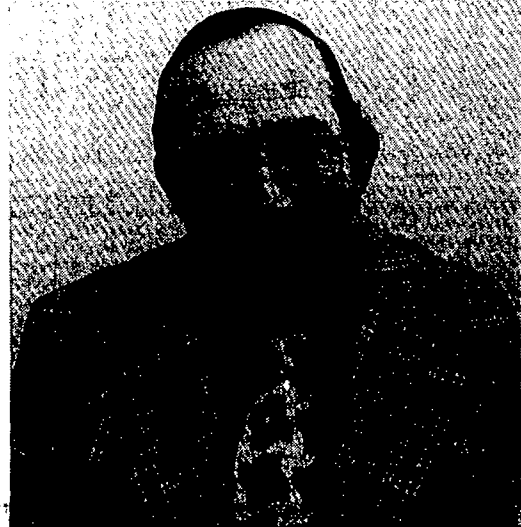

Joseph Smiddy holds the B.A. degree from Lincoln Memorial University with a major in biology, and the M.A. degree in biology from Peabody College, and completed further graduate work at William and Mary and the University of Tennessee. He was awarded the honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree at Lincoln Memorial University, and the Doctor of Law at the University of Richmond.

He has been a member of the faculty at Clinch Valley College since its establishment in 1954, when he served as the first biology instructor. In 1956 he was appointed Dean of the College, and in 1957 was made

Director of the College. Smiddy was appointed Chancellor on July 1, 1968.

He is active in a number of civic, community and cultural organizations including the Kiwanis Club, American Legion, Masonic Lodge, Shriner (Kazim Temple) Scottish Rite Mason (Valley of Roanoke), Virginia Academy of Science, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Phi Delta Kappa, and the Virginia Education Association. He is a member and deacon of the Wise Baptist Church; he served as President of the Baptist General Association of Virginia in 1975; is a member of the boards of directors of the Wise Clinic, Gladeville Housing, Ltd., Virginia Baptist Foundation, and Wise County National Bank. Smiddy was listed in Who's Who in the South and Southwest in 1969 and also is listed in Who's Who in American College and University Administration. He was named Wise County's Outstanding Citizen for 1970 and was Outstanding Educator for 1973.

Other Virginians named as 1981 Laureates are Roger H. Mudd, NBC news commentator; Alf J. Mapp, author; John W. Hancock, community and government contributions; Keturah Whitehurst, graduate school dean; Robert Eugene Phipps Sr., educator; Jessie Leson Brown, professor and member of Virginia Commission for the Arts; Charles Lott Kaufman, community and civic contributions; Kenneth W. Thompson, American Academy of Arts and Sciences Fellow; Duncan H. Reed, banker; Thomas H. Hunter, former medical school dean; Harry Lyons, dentistry school dean emeritus; Josefina Bautista, medical director; Carolyn Moore McCue, pediatric; Fletcher Collins, medieval drama; A. Edwin Kendrew, landscape and civic art; Ulrich Troubetzkoy, author; Nancy Hale, author; the late Ariel L. Goldberg, ecumenical work.

Six others were named peer eminents including Supreme Court Justice Lewis F. Powell Jr., authors Mary Lee Settle and Damas Malone; Thomas C. Boushal, J. Kenneth Morland, and Catherine Flene Shouse.

Chancellor and Mrs. Smiddy have been invited to attend a recognition ceremony at the state capitol on October 1. Later that evening there is a black tie reception and banquet at which the recipients of Laureate awards will be presented medallions of office. Keynote speaker for the occasion is The Honorable Harry Flood Byrd, Jr.

Fall Elections - Little Excitement

Fall elections failed to add any excitement to a rainy Wednesday as few students showed up to cast their vote. At stake were a full slate of Freshman SGA and Honor Court positions, as well as two senior Honor Court positions.

With less than 19% (42 of 228) of eligible freshmen voting, three SGA and four Honor Court Representatives were elected. As only three candidates declared for the SGA seats, they were all elected. John Kilgore received 34 votes, and Lynn Gilbert and Kim Johnson each received 33 votes. Freshman Honor Court Representatives were chosen out of a field of nine candidates. Tim Williams received 19 votes, Kevin Short received 17 votes, and Jane Schiffina received 16 votes. Kim Raymer was elected alternate with 13 votes. Other candidates were: Debbie Crouse (12 votes), Patti Meade (10 votes), Brian Hastoligis (10 votes), Travis Kennedy (10 votes), Donna Ward (4 votes), and Allen Wallace (1 vote).

The senior class also displayed little interest as only 23% (30 of 136) voted. Sherry Tulley was chosen to represent the class with 20 votes. Mike Duncan received 11 votes, Page Bowards received 7 votes, and Clinton Jervis received three write-in votes.

Talent Jamboree October 6

The Student Government Association will sponsor a Talent Jamboree on October 6, 1981 in the Jefferson Lounge. The event will begin at 8:00 p.m. and will be open to singing acts, dancing acts, comedian acts, and instrumentalists.

CVC students, faculty and alumni are invited to participate in the jamboree which will require a one dollar entry fee. Terry Kilgore, SGA President encouraged participation by saying, "I hope everyone who has talent will make an attempt to participate. Without the participation of the students, events such as this will be doomed to failure."

Prizes will be given in the contest. Fifty dollars will be awarded to the first place winner, with second place receiving $25.00. Third and fourth places will receive $15.00 and $10.00, respectively.

The admission to the Jamboree is free. See entry form inside.

Of Standards In The Atmosphere

At the faculty retreat held at the Breaks Interstate Park on September 11 and 12, the topics of academic standards and intellectual atmosphere were discussed. Several suggestions were made concerning the improvement of these. As Dr. Carolyn Wells, the guest speaker, stated, the two are intertwined and improvement in one will lead to improvement in the other.

One suggestion was that faculty members make themselves more available for intellectual discussion with students and their colleagues. Perhaps, as one faculty member stated, the faculty members could sit in the lounge for a minimum time discussing issues concerning their field.

Yet another suggestion concerned the classroom. Most felt that the faculty members could improve the intellectual atmosphere by making their classes more interesting. Most suggested that the faculty members present questions to the students to achieve input.

From the student viewpoint, some students that attended the retreat felt that the GPA to make the Dean's List should be raised to 3.5. Last semester 212 out of 650 full time students made the Dean's List. Some felt that the 3.2 requirement is too low and if it was raised to a 3.5 students would be forced to try harder. Also, at nearby colleges, the GPA for the Dean's List is 3.5. Face it, one-third of the students on the Dean's List is too many.

Nevertheless, the faculty must decide that it will take the initiative in improving the academic standards and the intellectual atmosphere.

Think about it.

Sincerely yours,
 Jerry Kilgore, Editor

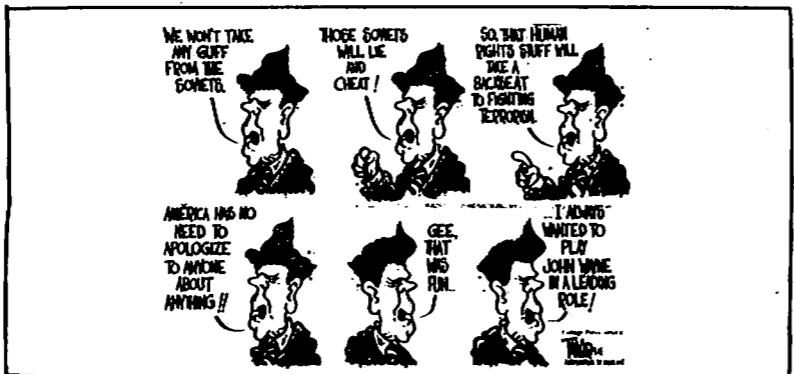

Faculty Forum To Begin

The Highland Cavalier is attempting to initiate a faculty forum whereby faculty members discuss problems of concern to them in a weekly column.

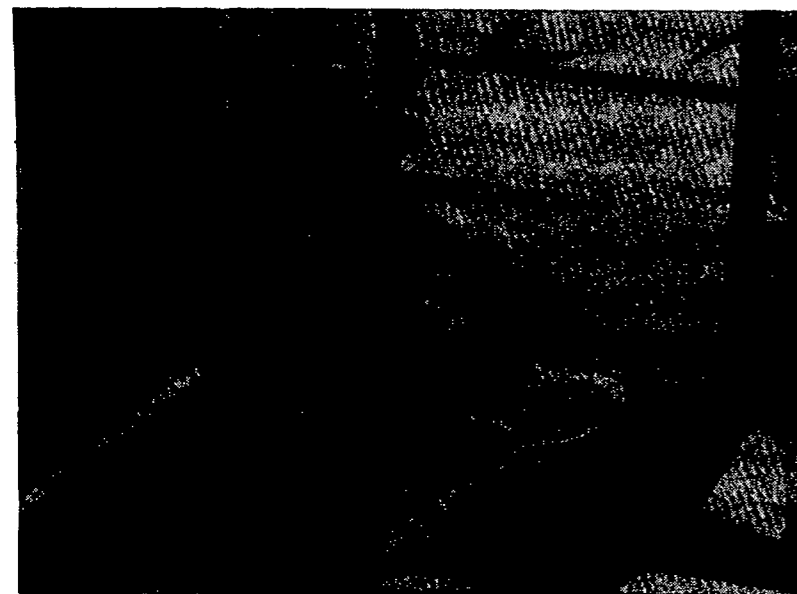

Nevertheless, before any such column would last, the faculty members must be willing to submit these articles. The articles may be of concern to the faculty member's field, a national issue, or a school issue. Forums such as these would provide intellectual discussions on various issues for the students. In addition, students may be sparked into writing a letter to the editor concerning the issue.

Any interested faculty member should contact Jerry Kilgore. Your consideration will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
 Jerry Kilgore, Editor

Pi Kappa Phi News

Hello and how are you? The brothers of Pi Kappa Phi hope all is well for everyone this semester. We would like to express our gratitude for everyone's support at our recent happy hours, dances, and during our rush week. It was your support that has made these functions a success and hope you will continue to do so.

Speaking of happy hour, this past Friday's was a real blowout. Those partying people were really cranking. I'm sure everyone who attended had a fantastic time. So all you people going home every weekend, stick around an extra night. It will be worth your time... find out what college is truly about!! While most of those attending Friday night were still resting from that excursion, those industrious brothers were helping the Mountain Empire Older Citizens in a clean-up project. Community participation is just one more service that the Epsilon Epsilon chapter includes in its activity calendar. This service is extremely beneficial to these people since there are very few volunteers to help out.

We would like to apologize since there will be no happy hour this Friday, but the chapter is going on a raft trip. Last spring was the first proving to be a tremendous success. This one proves to be even more exciting. So if shooting the white-water rapids appeals to the adventurer in you, there is still time to sign up.

In closing, I can only hope that the fraternity winning streak continues in softball. As of now, it stands at one. Remember, everyone hit those books during the week, but come Friday! party with the Pi Kappas!!!

Special Services Offering SCII

By: Ann Morris
 Services Counselor

Are you undecided about the type of job for which you're suited? Are you doubtful that you'll be happy in the field you're pursuing? If you answered yes to either of these questions, then the Strong-Campbell Interest Inventory (SCII) is for you.

The SCII is a self-administering test that aids an individual in making curricular or occupational choices and in planning a career. The test gives 3 types of information: 1) It scores on six general occupation themes that reflect an individual's occupational orientation; 2) It scores 23 Basic Interest Scales which report interests in areas such as art, science, or math; and 3) It scores on 162 occupational scales dentists, professors, photographers, for example. These occupational scales indicate the similarity between an individual's interests and his interests in specific occupations.

Special Services will be offering the Strong-Campbell Interest Inventory to all interested persons September 28 through October 2. If you want to take the SCII come by the Special Services Office in Z-114 and request the test. It only takes 30 minutes and it may be of great help to you in the future.

Little Sisters Of Phi Kappa Phi News

The Sisters' trip to Skoby's World last Tuesday was a great success! We were treated once again to the famous Singing Waiters. This, in itself, made the trip worthwhile.

The Sisters' first dance will be held next Tuesday, the 29th. We hope to see everyone there partying with us. Don't forget about the raffle. You can buy your tickets from any Little Sister.

Merit Society Kicks Off Second Year

The Merit Society will begin its second year at CVC with an exciting, event-filled semester. The first meeting of the new year was held on Wednesday, September 9. Plans for the new year include such things as field trips, special issues forums, both on-campus and dinner speakers and special service activities for the community. Members are presently selling "Fires Out" fire extinguishers to help pay for these events. A bake sale is planned for this week, the proceeds of which will go to charity. These, as well as other events, will prove to be both educational and enjoyable.

Five new members will be joining the Merit Society this semester. Officers for the coming year are: Kim Still, President; Ed Stables, Vice President; Justice Hanika, Secretary; and Renee Shepard, Treasurer. Faculty advisors are: Joe Scolnick, Peter Yun, and Lou Kinum.

A break in the discussions at faculty retreat.

Cheerleading sponsor, Martha McDaniel, shows her sentiments on the male participation in cheerleading tryouts.

If you really want to be happy, try these rules. When we live by these three lessons, we will be well on our way to achieving happiness. We are not happy because of what you hold in your heart, but because of what you keep in your heart.

First, of all accept your self. You will be better off just being yourself. Do not try to be someone else you can only be your self if you are to do your best in life. There is something special about you, God gave to each person certain talents and if you are not careful you will squander them trying to be like some person you admire. Not only must we seek to discover our special talents and develop them, but must also be willing to accept our limitations. Once a man went to see a psychiatrist about a serious inferiority complex from which he was suffer-

Student Union Building Nears Completion

The Student Union Building is scheduled to be completed no later than the end of February. However, "What's going to be in the Student Union Building" seems to be the question everyone is asking.

According to the plans, the first floor will house a lounge with an adjacent exhibiting area, the post office, the bookstore, a game room, the manager's office, the Highland Cavalier Office, the Outpost Office, the SGA office, and the Nurse's Office.

Continuing, the second floor will contain the Cafeteria (with a salad bar), a grill, and a Physical Education Room.

Also, if you think there is another building being built near the Student Union Building there is! Construction recently began on the All-Faith Chapel. The chapel will contain an office, dressing rooms, a servery, and a chapel with stained glass windows.

The countdown has begun. Soon the students will be able to enjoy two needed additions to the CVC campus.

Addition To Library Staff

Robert H. Woodley has been appointed Evening Readers Services Librarian at Clinch Valley College. He will work this academic year in the position of Robin Paul Benke, who is on academic leave for graduate study.

Woodley holds a B.A. degree with a major in religious Studies from the University of Alabama, and a Master of Library Science from the Graduate School of Library service at the University of Alabama.

His library experience includes a teaching assistantship in the University of Alabama's Reference Department, and a faculty appointment at the University. He also was manager of the Law Library at the Tuscaloosa County (Alabama) Courthouse. Woodley has been employed as a cross-country driver for Phifer Wire Products and as manager of a college bookstore in Tuscaloosa.

Upcoming Movies Reviewed Wednesday, Sept. 23

Wednesday, September 23, 7:00 p.m. Science Lecture Hall. Appalshop Festival of Films with speakers Herb E. Smith and Elizabeth Barrett.

Appalshop is an independent Media Collective, with its facilities in Whitesburg, Kentucky. They address the cultural, historical and social issues of the Appalachian Region. Their often poignant and thoughtful projects, reflect a love for this area of the country and their awareness, that times are changing and the reality that has existed here, in it somewhat pure isolation, may be over.

Three films will be shown, covering a cross section of themes. Coal Miner: Frank Jackson, where the full meaning of a life in the mines becomes increasingly clear. The Thy Kingdom Come School, a portrait of a one room schoolhouse, more a family than school. What our system of education suffers from, the past may provide clues to its improvement. After these two films, Herb E. Smith and Elizabeth Barrett, both members of Appalshop since its formative days and filmmakers of the next film Handcarved will discuss Appalshop and the filmmaking process and the meaning it holds for them. Finally, Appalshops first full length feature Handcarved will be shown. It concerns Chester Cornette perhaps the best craftsman in the country. A master craftsman, using only a saw, axe, drawing knife and drill, with suborness and originality, he carries on the tradition that his grandfather and uncle were noted for before him. Avoiding the temptation to switch to power equipment, struggling amidst economic hardship, he creates 1 legged rockers, savoring the bittersweet experience of his life.

Appalshop films are documents about people, people we see each day, but, perhaps fail to understand completely.

Next semester, a Filmmaking course is tentatively planned, as English 326. Those interested in taking such a course would be advised to share this evening.

This program is the opening act, in a 4 day series, on the theme Appalachian Days.

Sunday, September 27 - 7:00 and 9:00 p.m. Fall Sale - directed by Sidney Lumet w/Henry Fonda, Dan O'Herliky, Walter Matthau

Rules For Happiness

ing. After careful examination, the doctor said, I've given you every available test and I've have good news for you. You do not have a complex, you are inferior.

Remember to over come defeat. There will be those times that we shall experience defeat but we are not to stay in the spirit of defeat but rise up. Be honest with yourself and find the place that you can go on to accomplish the great things that you are able to accomplish.

Accept your self. Learn to accept yourself. You cannot be someone else with any degree of success, but you can be yourself.

Then, do not limit your love to those who are nice to you. It may not be easy to love some people, but it is possible. God did not give us a problem for which there is no answer. Jesus said "For if ye love them which love, what reward have you? Do not even the publicans do the same?" Matthew 5:46. Jesus, clearly stated that the first commandment is to love God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength a second is like the first. That is to love your neighbor as you love yourself. On these two commandments hand all the law and the prophets. Matthew 22:40.

Actually, when we learn to love as we should, the other commands of our Lord are easier to keep. Perhaps this is the reason that Jesus taught that love is the greatest commandment. Think about it! When we love God and our neighbors as we should, all relationships with others fall into place. Jesus saw the possibilities in every person. He love men not for what they were but for what they could become.

BSU To Have Program On Prayer

Prayer will be the theme of the Baptist Student Union meeting on Wednesday, September 23. After the fellowship supper, Bible passages on prayer will be shared and Prayer Partners will be chosen. The Prayer Partner relationship has become a meaningful part of BSU life. Those who wish to participate will be paired with another individual to share prayer needs and concerns during the semester.

Information about the BSU Fall Conference will be available at Wednesday's meeting, too. The Fall Conference is held each year in October at Eagle Eyrie Baptist Assembly. This year's Fall Conference dates are October 23-25. See Ruth Anne Swindal, Roberta Phillips or Jim Collie for more information.

All students, staff and faculty are invited to be a part of BSU. BSU meets each Wednesday at 5:00 at the United Student Center across Cobsurn Road from campus.

"Julius, Seize Her!"

By Jim Collie, Baptist Campus Minister

In writing a column for a college newspaper certain Bible passages seem to come to mind again and again. No, I'm not thinking of Ecclesiastes 12:12 ("...the use of books is endless, and much study is wearisome.") The New English Bible.)

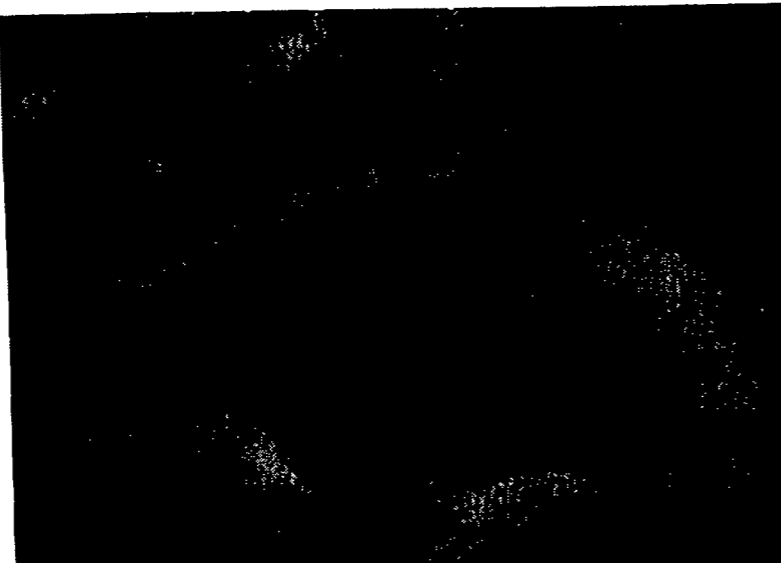

At this time in the semester it is Philippians 3:15-16 that both nags and gives hope. For those of us who are mature or maturing, past performance is never the true measure of who we are or what we are capable of.

Books to read, papers to write, tests to take have all piled up on us now. And some of us are pretty disgusted and discouraged. Others are perhaps at the point of quitting. Hear Paul's words to the Philippians and let them nag at you a little. Get a new perspective on your college life. If you need to, forget what it has been like so far. Concentrate on what needs to be done now. For it is God's promise that the past never has to have the last word.

As famous humorist and publisher Bennett Cerf tells it, Shakespeare had his academic problems, too. It seems the Bard was having difficulty with his Senior Honors Thesis. Why, the professor wouldn't even accept the title. It was too long. "Shorten it or else!" He told Bill. And rightly so. Can you imagine: "Julius, Run and Catch Her Quick!"?

Scene from Appalshop Film Coal Miner: Frank Jackson.

being, that a group of American Bombers, are instructed, in error, to drop nuclear bombs on the Soviet Union. The circumstances and events surrounding this situation are portrayed with first rate acting. The real star of the film is the director, however, whose building and maintaining of suspense, with painstaking realism, makes this a provocative film on the subject of Cold War. It has been highly rated for its artistic achievement.

Tuesday, September 22 - 4:00 p.m. Library 113 The Changing Face Of Dixie (25 minutes)

Dixie is no longer, just the land of cotton where old times are not forgotten. The South has been undergoing large changes, not all positive. The new social structure, marked by the end of segregation, still has not erased uneasiness between the races. Farming is changing radically, from old sharecropper ways vanishing, with king cotton being replaced by soybeans.

Industry is booming, as it shifts from its old home in the northeast for many reasons, one being, the South is the least unionized area in the country, providing cheap labor. Atlanta, pride of the South, still has 20 percent of its office space vacant. What does this change mean? What will it bring for Dixie?

Campus Info...

Registrar's Office ATTENTION FOURTH-YEAR STUDENTS—Students expecting to complete degree requirements in December 1981,

May 1982 and August 1982 must complete a Degree Application form and deposit with the Registrar's Office. Degree Application Forms are available in the Registrar's Office.

GRADUATION WITH HONORS—Students who are in their senior year and may be interested in graduating with honors, particularly those who may qualify this spring, should be made aware of the policy on graduation with honors which follows:

In order to graduate with honors a student must be in the top quarter of his/her class and must complete an honors project which demonstrates an unusually high level of academic achievement. The types of honors projects which will be eligible for consideration will be defined by the academic departments and/or disciplines subject to the approval of the Honors Committee.

The Honors Committee will have final authority to select those students who will graduate with honors. The Committee will be composed of the Dean serving as chairman and one representative from each academic division, to be appointed by the appropriate division chairman.

Proposals for honors projects should be submitted by students by April 15 in their junior year, but not later than September 15 in the fall of their senior year. (This date has been changed to October 1 for this year.)

Each student submitting a proposal must have a faculty member who is willing to supervise the project. The proposal must be recommended by the faculty member and the department chairman. If the proposal is accepted by the Committee, then it must have the recommendation of the supervising faculty member and the department chairman when submitted in final form.

Each student completing an honors project will make an oral presentation open to the public on his/her project.

No student need necessarily be awarded honors and normally no more than 5% of the graduating class should qualify for such honors.

Students interested in applying for graduation with honors may check with Mrs. Barbara Short in the Office of the Registrar to determine if they are in the top quarter of their class. Then they are encouraged to discuss their interest with the chairman of the department or division in which they are majoring and receive advice on the development of a proposal. Proposals should be submitted through the Office of the Dean.

Movies
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22—Appalshop Film Festival with Guest Speakers and possible Workshop. It will be part of and in conjunction with the Doc BOGGS Festival.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27—"Fall Safe" Lumet's direction of "Fall Safe" is energetically swift-paced, crackles with electricity, and makes it even more astonishing as a movie than it was as a novel by Eugene Burdick and Harvey Wheeler. In the same time frame as "Dr. Strangelove", its premise is the supposition that a group of American bombers are instructed in error to drop nuclear bombs over the Soviet Union and just what might be the possible retaliation. Henry Fonda is the President of the U.S., Walter Matthau a right-wing chief, and they are both top-notch, while almost matched by Dan O'Herliky and Frits Weaver in equally important roles. However, although the acting is all first-rate, the real star of the film remains its director and his ability to build and maintain suspense; and do it with painstaking realism. "Fall Safe" is one of the most provocative films to deal with the dangers of the cold war, rating highly as an artistic achievement as well.

Services
ADD BRILLIANCE—Is your car's paint getting dull? Is a paint job too costly? Then have your car compounded and waxed to take off the old paint and restore a nearly new luster to the finish. Contact Rick at trailer 13 or 18 for price and appointment.

SPORTS

Behind The Games

Baseball this time of year? Yee, the Cavs baseball team has already hit the field although the regular season is a long way off.

It looks as though the team might turn itself around this year under the leadership of Coach Dave Bentley. The group has already been exposed to more discipline in four days than they had all of last year.

Joel Wyatt will lead the squad during the fall workouts while Coach Bentley concentrates all of his attention on the already top shape basketball team.

There is a lot of talent on the diamond this fall, in fact, there was a lot of talent out there last year. With the right coaching, a lot of hard practice, another pitcher or two and a little luck, the 1981-82 Cavalier baseball team can have a good season.

Many people seem to feel that Coach Bentley will take a "no care" approach to the baseball team but I can assure you that this is not the case. Coach Bentley is going at the baseball team with as much enthusiasm as with his own basketball team.

If everyone will get out and support the baseball team this spring, then possible, just possibly, we can have another winning team at Clinch Valley.

Three Teams Undeclared In Softball

After a short monsoon season, it looks as if intramural softball will once again continue. After 1 1/2 weeks of play, three teams are still in the thick of the running, with the others not far behind.

As of Thursday of last week, the Barbarians, Phi Sigs, and Padres are undefeated and headed for a showdown. The Barbarians played the Padres last Thursday and the Sigs Sunday, and the Padres and Sigs will battle it out on Tuesday.

The K. Kings and Kapps have shown signs of improvement, but their status is still not favorable to capture the crown. As was predicted, the A's are having trouble fielding a team, and this has caused their standings to falter. The Kings II have suffered losses to the Sigs and Barbarians, and the Whipper Snappers haven't been able to play any games to date.

This week's game should determine the top seed going into next week's tournament. Some factors to consider this week are baseball practice, of which seven Barbarians and several A's and Padres are victims, and the weather's effect as to whether games will be rescheduled, allowing baseball and basketball players to attend. Come out and see how this week's games go.

Cheerleading tryouts were held this week with twelve girls making the squad.
