Olympics Scheduled For April 20

CVC athletes, where are you? The SGA is sponsoring the CVC Olympics on April 20 with individual and team ribbons being awarded. The Olympics will begin at 2:30 p.m. and proceed until all events are over and winners have been determined.

Also, an award will be given to CVC's "Iron Man". The "Iron Man" award will be awarded to the individual that enters and wins or places in the most events. For both team awards and the Iron Man award, five points will be awarded for a first place finish, four points for second, and three for third.

The events include the following: softball throw, frisbee throw, relays, mixed relays, situps, 440 yard dash, 100 yard dash, and mile run. The event will be capped off with the CVC "Mini-Marathon" which will be a cross-campus run which will be approximately five kilometers in length. Terry Kilgore, SGA President, stated. Plans were originally for a 10K run but due to the red tape involved in clearing the race with the state highways, a cross campus race was implemented."

Kilgore stated, "I encourage all students to enter and especially teams. With team participation we can insure mass participation."

Entry forms may be found on page five of the Highland Cavalier. The entry forms should be given to Terry Kilgore or any SGA member. Deadline for entry is Friday, April 16.

Communications Day A Success

Communications Day was held last Thursday in the CVC Theatre Building and was sponsored by the CVC Division of Humanities. The topic for this year's event was entitled "Communicating in Business."

At 10 a.m. James Pavlokis of the C&P Telephone Company Communications Staff presented the audience with a speech entitled, "Communicate or Disintegrate." Pavlokis referred to the necessity for communicating in business and recognized possible failure without the needed communication.

Continuing, Ted Brisky, manager of the Beth-Elkhorh Company, spoke to the audience on "Business Communication - what? Why? How?" Brisky stressed the difference between a leader and a boss and presented the audience with the conclusion that it is better to be a leader than a boss.

A panel discussion was held at 2:00 p.m. with the topic "How Managers Handle Conflict." Eight served on the committee which included Pavlokis, Brisky, William Clements (President, Wise County National Bank), Bonnie Elosser (Dean of Students, CVC), Lois Glascock (Vice-President of Finance, United Coal Company), Julia Heise (Upward Bound Program Director, CVC), William A. Thompson (President, Thompson & Litton Engineers) and Frank Leeming (Publisher, Kingsport Times-News).

The eight addressed various case studies which involved conflicts between managers and employees. Most panelists agreed that the majority of the case studies involved a breakdown in communication between the employer and the employee. The panel addressed various questions in each case study which included What happened? Why did it occur? What could have done to avoid the communication breakdown? And How could the conflict be solved?

Communications Day was ended with a buffet dinner in the CVC Cafeteria.

The Festival features exhibits from other countries including India and Ireland. Other exhibits are trains (by Jim Collie), dolls, and antique toys. Bazaar items include T-shirts and tote bags with the Festival emblem and small gifts (priced well under $10) from Africa, Hawaii, India, and the Orient. Included in the Law Activities are leather crafts and rag doll demonstrations, gymnastics, free balloons and clown make-up, Spruce Henry as the Picpocket Clown, and strolling French singers "Georgette et Jacques."

Both professional and local groups will entertain at two programs to be held at the Gymnasium. The morning program is from 10:00 a.m. until 12:15, and the afternoon program begins at 1:00 and ends about 4:00. ## Elections.... Vote

On April 21, 1982, the 1982-83 SGA officers, representatives, and Honor Court representatives will be elected. The SGA is the voice of the student body in campus affairs; therefore, anyone interested in what goes on at CVC should apply for candidacy. Three representatives will be elected from each class for the SGA, along with President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. One's hands are not tied where student affairs are concerned; run for the SGA and have a voice. Instead of complaining about what others do, get involved and change things.

CVC students have been known to be very apathetic, especially in campus affairs. Make a change and pick up a petition for candidacy on the SGA.

Honor Court representatives will also be elected on the same day. As with the SGA, three representatives will be elected from each class. More often than not, there are only 1 or 2 people from each class who declare candidacy for the Honor Court. That is apathy. By running for one of the representative positions, a student shows an interest in school affairs. The SGA's track record where interest is concerned is a little better than the Honor Court's; they usually have a full ballot, and the Honor Court does not. Regardless, both of these groups need interested and hard-working individuals who are willing to give up a small amount of their time to help make CVC what they want it to be.

So, drop by the Dean of Students office and pick up a petition for candidacy on the SGA or sign a declaration of candidacy for the Honor Court.

Sincerely Yours,
Valeri Jones
Assistant Editor

Fee Doesn't Cover Roaches

My name is Mocher the mouse. I was hired to represent Mr. and Mrs. Cockroach in Room 316. My clients are upset at the charge against them for not earning their keep at McCrarry Hall. It is easy to prove our case each weekend.

As the suitcase students depart and the janitorial staff are off each weekend, it is up to my colleagues, the roaches, to control the garbage in the hallways. They are at a position of being overworked. The volume of filth just piled up each weekend. To my observation, the garbage collects from clogged chutes on each respective floor.

Just between you and me, my clients would be out of a job if the school held classes Thursday through Monday. This would leave Tuesday and Wednesday for a two day break. Maintenance would then be around to clear the garbage chutes while maintaining some cleanliness in the bathroom. The habits of the students are fairly fixed so that the problem wouldn't reoccur. Why, some toilet paper even appears in the stalls!

The habits of the students wouldn't need to change at all. Dances on Tuesday and Wednesday night might draw a larger crowd. Security could continue to lock up the gym at 9:30 on Saturday nights. By goal, students should be studying on a school night. Why else do students pay a $50 activity fee? The fee does not cover my roaches' effort at McCrarry.

Sincerely,
M.M., 2nd Floor McCrarry

Construction Area Ahead

By: Warren H. Wattenbarger
Wesley Foundation
Campus Minister

The big orange signs tell us several things as we drive the interstate and other highways. Slow Down - Men Working - The highway is being improved - You will be temporary inconvenienced - Detour.

All along the highway we come across these signs indicating improvement. In some cases the big signs tell us how many state and federal dollars are being spent for the improvement (a less painless way of telling us why we must pay taxes).

Such construction signs indicate a need for repair. Others tell us repairs or improvements are being made. The areas have deteriorated or become inadequate for present traffic.

A road without any construction areas would be one of the world's wonders. All roads deteriorate. All roads can be made safer. All roads can be reconstructed to make trips more enjoyable. A road never needing new construction is rarer than freezing temperatures in the equatorial tropics.

Your life ahead will have its necessary construction areas. Sooner or later every person discovers that he or she has not reached perfection. People deteriorate mentally, physically, and spiritually if they never slow down to have some reconstruction done. Such reconstruction takes planning and considerable effort. It is like going to school all over again.

But rather than doing all the work ourselves why not turn our lives over to the constructor of the universe -- Jesus Christ? He proclaimed "Behold I make All things new" Rev. 21:5. That concerns the ages and worlds to come. It can also be related to the day by day process of making us over again.

You probably think your school days are like a big construction job anyway. You will be glad when they are over for a while. But there is a good reason for construction times. God brings us into them so we might "be conformed to the image of his Son" Romans 8:29.

And as one translator stated in Corinthians 5:17, "If anyone is in Christ, he is in the process of becoming a new creation. As the old things pass away, all things become new". Schooling never ends. God is not through with you yet.

Allow God to do the construction that is necessary to make your life all He desires it to be. It will be an improvement no matter how you look at it. He is the Master Constructor. And making us into the likeness of Jesus Christ does not sound bad.

Knowing What We Need

By Jim Collie,
Baptist Campus Minister

As the semester gets closer to hand, some of you remember a certain anxiety that may still be with you. For earlier in the year you had asked the question, "Do I have what I need to graduate?" I can well remember counting up the credits at least a dozen times. It was good to see that magic number that equaled a degree. Of course more was involved than just the total number of hours successfully passed. Did I have all the required courses for my major? Sometimes life gets a lot like planning our academic careers. There are so many courses offered. However what we might want to take might not be what we need. Especially if we plan to graduate anytime soon. Learning the difference between wants and needs is not always easy. The letter to the Philip-plans is Paul's story of his own struggle with the problem of distinguishing between wants and needs. Philipians makes for interesting reading.

What does Paul conclude? In chapter 4, verse 10, he says, "And my god will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus." Do we know what we need? Do we have it?

Movie-Going Students Favor 'Raders' And Escapism

More than ever before, college students today are turning to entertainment and adventure films to blot out their scholarly and economic worries, according to a recent magazine poll of over 1500 students across the country.

Escapism dominated students' choices for their favorite movie of 1981. Their favorite was "Raiders of the Lost Ark," followed by "Arthur", "The French Lieutenant's Woman", "Body Heat," and "Stripes."

"There's no doubt the market has gotten away from heavy social comment films, and become more interested in escape films," reports Randy Achee, publisher of Ampersand magazine, which conducts the annual student poll.

In contrast to the popularity of dramatic films of years past, the student population this year has shifted to lighter, more entertaining films, Achee says. College students picked comedy as their favorite type of movie, followed by adventure, suspense and science fiction.

"In terms of the types of motion pictures preferred, there's a tremendous interest in comedy," Achee says. "Comedy has always been popular, but not to the degree it is this year."

He speculates the reason is that real-life problems are getting worse.

"The job market, the economy, and other factors are causing a lot of students to say, 'Gee, when I get out of school I don't even know if I'll have a job.' Students don't know whether they'll be able to have the same standard of living as their parents. It's kind of a downer, and they need something to take their minds off of it."

Student favorites may be less serious, but there are more of them than in the past. Respondents saw an average of 2.28 films a month, according to the survey, compared to 1.8 movies last year. Achee says the average has hovered between 2.5 and three for the last several years.

The college audience has also gotten a little older, Achee adds, and is less concerned with how commercial a movie may be.

"Raiders of the Lost Ark," the adventure film about an archeologist digging for a biblical source of mystic power, also garnered star Harrison Ford honors as favorite male actor among students. Jane Fonda was the favorite actress for the second year in a row, noosing out Meryl Streep and Katherine Hepburn.

Career Corner

Making Career Choices

Students often want two kinds of help with career planning. They want to be sure that the career they choose is right for them, and that they have not overlooked a more desirable occupation. Nobody and no test can assure this. Instead, career counselors can only outline some ideas and tools that usually reduce unwanted outcomes and risk.

Before consulting a counselor, you should try to learn as much as you can about yourself and the occupational world. The following are two steps you can take to increase the quality of your career decisions.

1. List each job you are interested in and then complete the following checklist for each of them. The occupation with the largest number of "true's" should be your best possibility.

T F I have the necessary intelligence and abilities to do this job.

T F I can get the necessary knowledge and skills to do a good job.

T F I know how people with this occupation live on and off the job. I find this a good way to live.

T F I can afford the training I would need to get.

T F I can see myself happy doing this work for many years.

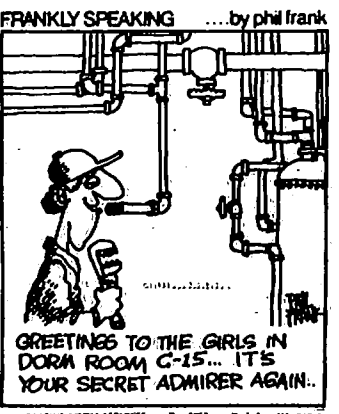

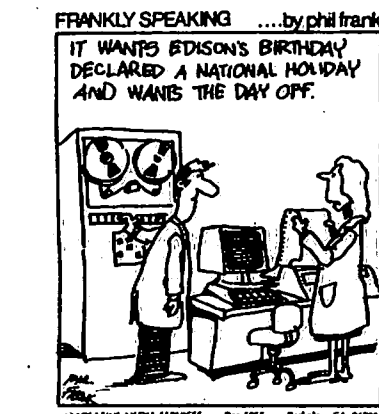

T F My friends, parents, relatives, and teachers think I can succeed at this job.

2. Talk with people who do the kind of work you are interested in. Ask about their typical work day, training needed, responsibilities, and so on.

"WE JUST WANT YOU TO KNOW, MR. UPGHAM, THAT WE THINK IT'S ABSOLUTELY SHAMEFUL THE WAY THOSE GREEDY OWNERS EXPLOIT YOU PLAYERS, AND YOU SHOULD HOLD OUT FOR EVEN MORE THAN 55%, AND IF THAT MEANS A STRIKE, WELL, THAT'S OK BY US, YESSIR—WE'LL JUST HAVE TO MAKE THAT SACRIFICE!"

Scolnick Participates In Convention

Clinch Valley College professor Joseph Scolnick recently participated in the 1982 annual convention of the International Studies Association. It was held in Cincinnati at Staufer's Cincinnati Towers from March 24-27.

Scolnick chaired a panel, "National Cohesive Reactions to External Threats: An Analytical Framework and New Findings". He also presented a paper entitled "National Cohesive and Strife Reduction Reactions to External Threats: A Preliminary Analytical Framework." The subject of both panel and paper was how an outside threat unites a divided country. Other papers on the panel applied Scolnick's framework to Communist China and Libya.

Scolnick is Associate Professor of Political Science at Clinch Valley.

When the world we surround ourselves in slowly diminishes, and all that is left has such a tight involvement to keep living, the ceaseless cadence of time will weigh on the poetic soul and the self will be gripped with a madness it can not always control.

Financing College Costs For Less

Students' financial services together with the Citizens Bank of Dallas, Ga. (A suburban Atlanta Bank) is providing parents with an ingenious new way to pay for college at virtually no cost. It's called the "Tuition Reserve and Deposit Plan".

George Naterman, Executive Director of Students' Financial Services, said "Four unfavorable trends prompted development of the 'Plan'.

"Soaring tuitions and other costs, unusually high interest rates, drastic reductions in federal student aid and the lack of stability in federal aid programs (they turn somewhat every year) mean that parents must have access to a dependable source of college financing which will enable them to maximize the effectiveness of their existing funds."

Jon Bloomfield, vice president of the Citizens Bank said, "Parents can borrow up to 3 1/2 times as much as they keep in a special tuition reserve and deposit savings account and the interest earned on their savings will virtually offset the interest paid on the loans. In fact, the 'net-cost' of borrowing money is less than 1 percent a year."

The only advantage of the plan," said Naterman. "It actually counters each of the unfavorable trends I cited earlier."

"The 'Plan' provides stability in planning which parents can no longer get from topay-turvy federal programs. It enables parents to keep their financial assets intact. And parents can be sure the money they need for their children's education will be there... when they need it.

Bloomfield and Naterman both cautioned... "The rules pertaining to college financing continue to change and future trends are very unfavorable. Parents must recognize they will have to contribute more every year to their children's college expenses. Planning for college costs should start as early as possible. Factors such as inflation, projected costs at various colleges, and the length of the college program must be considered with great care.

Parents wishing to obtain additional information regarding the "tuition reserve and deposit plan" should write George Naterman, Students' Financial Services, One Perimeter way, NW, Suite 501, Atlanta, Georgia 30339, or call (404) 952-2500.

It involves the growing pains of a teenager on a New England island during WW II and his deep infatuation with his beautiful neighbor.

9:30 HUSBANDS (1970, 142 min. color) w/Ben Gazzara, Peter Falk, John Cassavettes. Dir.: John Cassavettes. Everyman strives to maintain within his set of responsibilities, yet the external child, the freedom seeker always exists. This story chronicles a group of adak, married and successful men, as they get together one day, and the weights between duty and freedom tip away from the practical. One of my favorite films.

Sports G.M. SOTs Capture 1981-82 Crown

By Rick Whitner

Intramural basketball came to a close last Thursday as the G.M. SOTs jumped out to an early lead and then managed to hold off a fierce rally by the Assassins in the closing minutes to lay claim to the 1981-82 Intramural Basketball Championship. One by one, the challengers for the crown fell by the wayside, and by Wednesday night's semi-final round, the top four tournament seeds had withstood the fire and were ready to make their final bid.

In the opening game Wednesday night, the Assassins pulled the upset of the tournament as they edged out the top ranked and undefeated Elements by a 72-70 count. After the Assassins took a 42-30 halftime lead on the blistering 67 percent shooting of State Smith and Vince Lambert, the Elements showed why they went undefeated as they roared back to tie the game in the closing minutes. Jeff Roberts led the game for the Assassins, though, as he hit two clutch free throws with less than a minute to play to send his team to the finals. Vince Lambert led the way for the hot-shooting Assassins with 24, while State Smith added 17. The Elements balanced attack was led by Johnny Carrette's 18 and David Webb's 18, with Jeff Smith and Doug Anderson adding 12 and 13 respectively.

In the nightcap, the G.M. SOTs broke open a close ballgame to break Just-A-Team's three-year reign as basketball champions. Both teams shot poorly throughout the contest, as the SOTs took a 38-21 halftime lead. The nets stayed cold the second half but as time ran down, so did Just-A-Team, and the SOTs were gradually able to pad their lead en route to a 67-54 finish. Lawrence Jervis and Tom Gilliland led the winners with 15 each, while Mark Holbrook and David Thomas added 14 and 16. Major Griffey paced the losers with 14 while Jeff "Dog" Leftwich added 16 with longrange bombers.

Thursday night's final bout became a rebounding battle and Lawrence Jervis let it be known early that he intended to be Chairman of the Boards, yanking 17 rebounds and pumping in 23 points. Neither team shot particularly well from the floor, but the Assassins were the colder of the two in the first half, unable to buy a bucket and the game looked to be a rout for the SOTs, who led by 16 at the half on Jervis' rebounding and Tom Gilliland's hot hand. Only Vince Lambert's 15-point first half kept the Assassins as close as they were.

With the Assassins big man State Smith on the bench, plus foul trouble, Jervis and Crew took over and the game looked as if it was decided early. In the first ten minutes of the second half, however, the Assassins caught fire and with 8:32 left in the game, tied the score at 54. The deciding factor came at the five minute mark, though, as Lambert drew his fifth foul with his team down by 3, 60-58. A technical foul on the bench, plus Lambert's foul, sent Mark Holbrook to the line where he connected with all three opportunities to extend the lead to 63-58. With their backs to the wall, the Assassins' gun went cold and the G.M. SOTs held on to win 72-64 and capture their first basketball championship.

All Intramural Details

This year the Highland Cavalier will publish a basketball All-star team, composed of nominations of its players from each intramural team. We would like for all teams to comply by having the captain or a team representative nominate three players from his team. A list of all nominations will be returned to the captains for voting of a first team, second team, and an honorable mention team. Lists must be turned in to the Highland Cavalier office or Campus Mail, Box 1127 by 4:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Men's Tennis 3-0 In Conference

On Saturday, April 3, the Clinch Valley Men's Tennis Team improved its season's record to 3-3 with wins over Alice Lloyd College and Union College. With a win over Pikeville College on Thursday, April 1, the Cavaliers now stand 3-0 in KIAC Conference play. Van Daniel commented, "We have a very inexperienced team this year. We seem to improve with each practice and match. I hope we can equal or improve upon last year's third place finish in the KIAC and District 32 of the NAIA."

The Cavaliers opened their season March 27 with a match at LMU. The more experienced LMU team swept all matches to take a 9-0 victory. On March 29, Concord College of Athens, West Virginia visited Wise and defeated Clinch Valley 9-0. Coach Daniel, "Against LMU we seemed to have a very bad case of opening match nerves. I think we will be much more competitive when we play them here. Only Greg Cole was ever into the match; with a couple of breaks he could have won at number two. Concord is one of the strongest teams that we will play this year. I was generally pleased with our performance against them. Kevin Howard played a close match with Jon Lovern at number one in spite of a badly bruised hand. Allen Wallace lost a very close match at number four falling 4-6, 7-6, 4-6 to Kevin Barberry."

On April 1, CVC opened KIAC action by defeating Pikeville College at Pikeville 8-1. On April 3, CVC hosted Alice Lloyd and Union for a three way match. CVC easily defeated Alice Lloyd 9-0 and swept 5 of 6 singles to defeat Union 6-3.

CVC has four matches scheduled this week - Tuesday at Concord, Wednesday, LMU at CVC, and Saturday, Union and Campbellsville at Union.

Soccer Team Wins In Indoor Double-Header

On April 2nd, Clinch Valley College Soccer Club brought indoor soccer to the CVC campus for the first time. Indoor soccer is conducted on the professional level around the country, drawing as much as 24,000 people per game. The double-header was played against Bluefield State College from West Virginia.

In the first game, CVC easily controlled action against the primarily Iranian foreign national Bluefield team. Reggie Bryant was very solid in the goal with over 30 saves, while Mohammed Khan, from Decca, Bangladesh, scored three goals. The CVC scoring was completed by Cengiz Volkan with two and Ricardo Gracia with one.

The second game was a much closer contest with Bluefield very determined, the game ending after an overtime period, a tie, 6-6. CVC scoring went again to Khan and Volkan with 2 each and Gracia with one. The final score for CVC was delivered by Mike Krochalis at 2:00 minutes of the overtime. Bluefield's Hassan scored with 1 minute left in the 5 minute overtime.

This weekend the CVC Soccer Club journeys to Danville, Va. for the Averett College Invitational Indoor Tournament, after which they will begin an outdoor schedule of games.

The members of the club include: Jim Kirkland, Mike Krochalis, Jim Hibberd, Cengiz Volkan, Chris Henson, Peter Genovese, Reggie Bryant, Ricardo Gracia, Mohammed Khan, Jack Browning, Don Railiff, Jeff Bilak. As the team moves into outdoor competition there is room for more participants. If you are interested in joining contact Peter Genovese, Room 167 Library, or any team member.

Jeff Roberts scores a run in the Cava doubleheader with Alice Lloyd.
