

INSIDE

From Obama to Kanye West and Taylor Swift, read about the most talked about interruptions of the past week on Page 3.

Like to laugh? Check out the story on upcoming comedian Erin Jackson on Page 4.

Heard of Tupos? Read up on the latest form of worship in the area on Page 5.

UPCOMING

Leadership Luncheon

The Student Leadership Appreciation Luncheon will be held in the Rhododendron Room of the Stump Student Center on Sept. 23 at 12 p.m.

Funtasia

Parents, bring your kids to Funtasia Sept. 26! The event, which promotes literacy, will be held in the Betty J. Gilliam Sculpture Garden from 12 to 4 p.m.

WEATHER

Friday

72°F / 60°F

Saturday

72°F / 62°F

Sunday

72°F / 61°F

Weather courtesy of
www.weather.com

INDEX

News	Page 2
Opinion	Page 3
Columns	Page 4
Entertainment	Page 6
Sports	Page 8

New assistant director hired

By Amanda Meade
Staff Writer
amm8ud@uvawise.edu

The vacant spot for an assistant director of residence life has been filled after a year-long search.

Assistant Director of Residence Life Briana Root began his journey at UVa-Wise on Aug. 31.

Before coming to the college, Root, who is originally from Mercer County, Pa., spent three years as hall director at the University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg, his alma mater.

He earned his bachelor's degree in English Writing there in 2004. Root wrote in an e-mail to The Highland Cavalier. He then went on to earn a master's degree in student affairs in higher education from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 2006. After graduating, he moved back to work at Pitt-Greensburg until August.

Root said that UVa-Wise is much like Pitt-Greensburg because both universities are smaller branches of bigger universities.

The number of residential students is similar, as is the size of the campus. Root, page 7

Root

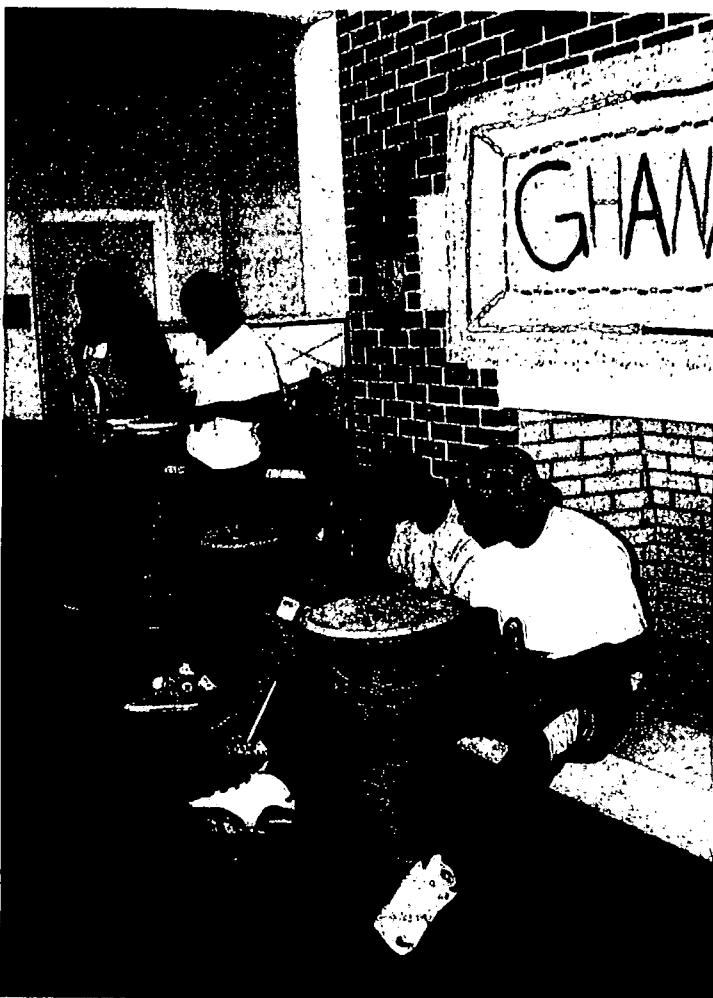

Photo by Whitney Bentley

Five students, from either Ghana or Sierra Leone, performed a percussion routine during the Ghana cultural hour hosted by MCA last Friday.

Ghana featured at first MCA cultural hour

By Geneva Bailey
Staff Writer
gmb9h@uvawise.edu

A taste of Ghana, Africa, culture was brought to campus by the Multicultural Alliance (MCA) who hosted their first cultural hour in the Jefferson Lounge at 1 p.m. on Sept. 11.

Every seat in the Jefferson Lounge was filled by curious students who had seen one or more of the posters hung by the MCA advertising free food and live entertainment.

The event even caught the interest of students going to and from classes who took the time to pause and listen while sampling authentic Ghanaian cuisine.

"I didn't expect this amount of people for our presentation of Ghana," said Samuel Sarfo, a junior French major, who was one of the Ghanaian presenters.

"I'm honored to be able to present my country and to be able to show students my culture," he said.

Five students from Sierra Leone and Ghana performed on African drums.

Freshman software engineering major Ankur Kumar was on the event planning committee. He said that his understanding of Ghana increased by working on the event and by listening to the presenters talk about their countries.

Matt O'Mara, a freshman history major, was brought to the event by Kumar.

He said he found the event to be entertaining. see Ghana, page 2

COPLAC abstracts due today

By Henry Holmes
Staff Writer
hh33q@uvawise.edu

Students interested in participating in the first-ever Council of Public Liberal Arts Colleges (COPLAC) Symposium for Undergraduate Research must submit their abstracts by today.

The symposium—to be held at the University of North Carolina at Asheville, in Asheville, N.C. on Nov. 7—is the first event of its type to be held in conjunction with COPLAC schools, said Academic Dean Amelia Harris.

"Out of the 26 [COPLAC member] schools, we are the first and we are proud of that," she said. "This is a great opportunity for our students to present research in front of other students and faculty."

Students from Georgia College and State University, the University of Montevallo, UNC-Asheville and UVa-Wise will participate in the symposium.

Students wanting to attend have the choice of either presenting a research paper or poster at the symposium. Space is available for ten to twelve students with papers and five to eight students with posters, Harris said.

Harris said she spoke with faculty and asked them to encourage students to submit their work. But, she said

see COPLAC, page 7

Photo courtesy of Whitney Thompson

Nursing students will participate in clinicals in local hospitals and nursing homes for the rest of the semester. Shown here are (back row, left to right) Elmer Bolea, Heather Blair, Kendra Hawkins, Rebecca Stone, Bryant Gray, Lindsay Miller. In front are Kaitlyn Roudabush and Stacy Gregory.

Nursing students to learn "hands-on" rest of semester

By Hannah Garrett
Staff Writer
hmg3z@uvawise.edu

As the semester progresses, the college's nursing students will be doing a majority of their learning outside of the classroom.

For the rest of the semester, nursing students will participate in clinicals in local hospitals and nursing homes to help prepare them for a career in the medical field.

Debra Carter, associate professor of nursing, said that clinicals are a safe and essential way for the students to acquire the skills needed to become a nurse.

The Virginia State Nursing Board requires that students accumulate several hundred hours of supervised clinical experience, Carter said. In order to maintain a safe environment for the students and patients, the Board also requires that there be no more than ten students per instructor while doing clinical work.

"Clinicals allow a safe environment for patients who receive care and for [the] students as they provide the care under supervision," Carter said.

Clinicals are also a great way for students to learn how to develop social skills and relationships between themselves and see Nursing, page 7

Comedian to visit campus next week

By Robert Hatch
Staff Writer
reh3q@uvawise.edu

She has been heralded by "The Washington Post" as an "up and coming comic." She has appeared on "The Ellen DeGeneres Show." And Tuesday, she will perform here.

The Student Activities Board (SAB) will bring Erin Jackson to perform at the Rhododendron Room in the Slomp Student Center on Sept. 22 at 9 p.m.

Jackson has been doing stand up comedy for more than six years and her material centers around the real events of her life.

"Most of my act is about things that have actually happened to me," Jackson said. "My family and friends and the ridiculous things I hear people say provide a lot of my material."

Her television appearances have ranged from the "The Bob and Tom Show" to "Comedy Central's Live at Gotham." She was a semifinalist for "Last Comic Standing," a featured performer on TBS's Bitcom Series and will also appear this fall on another TBS program, "The Very Funny Show."

She said she is most proud of her appearance on "The Ellen DeGeneres Show."

"She's my absolute favorite comic and to be invited personally by her has been the highlight of my (albeit short) career so far," Jackson said.

Jackson's comedy comes from her life, family and experiences. In her semi-final appearance on Last Comic Standing she joked that her seven-year-old godson received $10 for a tooth from the tooth fairy and she was outraged.

Photo obtained from www.erinjackson.net

"How did you get $10 from the tooth fairy when the tooth fairy still owes me $25?" she asked in response.

Jackson began her career several years after her college graduation.

"I think I first became curious about stand-up in college, but it took me until several years after graduation to get the ball rolling," Jackson said.

Jackson's comedy pokes at the funny sides of bad experiences as well.

"I have learned that there is humor to be found in even the most difficult (or) painful situations...like back in April when my 30-year-old boyfriend broke up with me on Facebook through a relationship status update," Jackson said.

"[It] was pretty awful at the time, but now a very funny true story I can tell on stage."

Drawn in 60 seconds: Caricature artist to visit

By Alicia Justice
Staff Writer
acj8k@uvawise.edu

One of the fastest caricature artists in the world is coming to UVa-Wise.

Self-taught artist Adam Pate will draw caricatures on Sept. 23 at 11 a.m. in the Jefferson Lounge. His claim to fame is his ability to draw more than 60 caricatures in an hour.

This will be Pate's second time coming to campus.

The Student Activities Board members saw Pate in action at the National Association of College Activities (NACA) National Convention last year.

"He's an excellent artist, and I encourage people to stop by the Student Center to get their caricature done," said Josh Justice, assistant director of student activities and Greek life, who attended the NACA Convention.

According to his Web site, Pate taught himself the art of caricature in high school.

Photo obtained from www.adampate.com

Adam Pate draws more than 60 caricatures an hour. He will be on campus next week.

Today Pate works full-time as an artist in his self-formed BIG POTATOES Caricature Company.

Students may see Pate doing students' caricatures at Papa Joe's, outside by the Student Center or in other areas on campus.

Can you draw?
Do you take a lot of pictures?
Are you good at telling stories?

Then the Highland Cavalier wants your work.

Contact Editor-in-Chief Allie Robinson at highlandcavalier@uvawise.edu to find out how you can get your work into the paper.

New campus ministry hopes to make impact

By Kara Collins
Staff Writer
kbo7w@uvawise.edu

The college has a new student ministry on campus.

Latin for "making an impact," Tupos is a non-denominational Christian group whose purpose is to assemble interested college students for ministry and worship.

Services are held in the Chapel every Wednesday night from 9 to 10 p.m.

A similar organization was started last year by Kevin Twilla, who was an employee of Camp Bethel student ministries.

This group led to the founding of Tupos when Twilla, along with several of the college's students, went through SGA to get the group, currently maintained by Camp Bethel, established and running.

"Camp Bethel's logo is 'To know Christ and to make him known,' which is what we wanted to do when starting the group," Twilla said.

There have already been a couple of meetings this year.

"I like it, it's fun," said Joseph Collins, a freshman health and physical education major. "[Students] should come out to Tupos. It is a time to get your mind off of things."

Even though the group is hosted by Camp Bethel, it is for UVa-Wise students and offers a different church-like setting.

"It's really cool because it's not like the average church setting," said Luke Parks, a senior health and physical education major who helped to establish the group.

Tupos services offer contemporary music and require no dress code, Parks said.

The atmosphere has a "come as you are" feel, he said.

"Something like this should have been started a long time ago," said Jordan Bates, a freshman software engineering major.

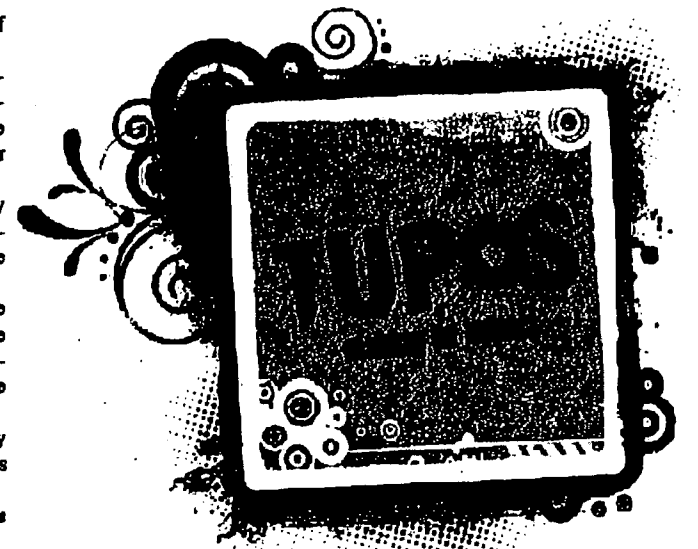

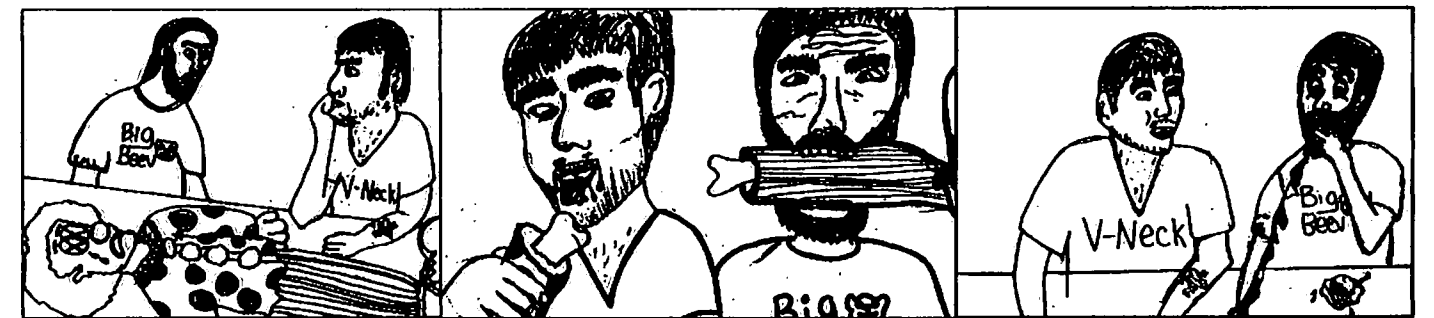

Photo obtained from tupos.org

Tupos, a new campus ministry, meets Wednesday nights at 9 p.m. in the Chapel of All Faiths. Above is the ministry's logo.

"Tastes Funny"

Two hungry carnivores plus a clown

"Does this taste funny to you?"

Grubbs

Campus Bulletin

Applebee's Breakfast

Up 'til Dawn will hold a pancake breakfast at Applebee's in Wise on Oct. 3 from 8-10 a.m. to raise money for St. Jude Children's Hospital.

Five dollars pays for two pancakes, two sausages and juice or coffee.

Up 'til Dawn is selling tickets now. To purchase tickets, e-mail Pam Roscoe at pjr4v@uvawise.edu.

Soccer Shoot-out

An all-campus intramural two-person soccer shoot-out will be held Sept. 24. The competition will begin at 7 p.m.

Golf Tournament

How close can you get? To the pin, that is. On Thursday Sept. 22, meet at the intramural softball field at 8 p.m. for the "Closest to the Pin" golf contest.

Play Me in Spanish

Every Thursday at 1 p.m. come practice your Spanish-speaking skills in Cantrell 206. This is open to the entire campus community.

Jimson Weed

Submissions for this fall's "Jimson Weed" are due Monday, Sept. 21.

Please send poetry, prose, artwork and photography to jak3bb@uvawise.edu, gok7u@uvawise.edu, or jimson-weed@uvawise.edu as an attachment.

You can also drop submissions in the folder outside the Jimson Weed office located on the third floor of the Student Center.

Frankenstein

Wesley Fellowship will take a trip to see "Frankenstein" at the Barter Theatre on Saturday, Sept. 26.

The show starts at 2 p.m., but meet at the Wesley Foundation across the street from campus to leave at 12 p.m. Tickets are $19.

Contact Beth Tipton at btipton@uvawise.edu for more information.

Rules for Submission

All campus organizations or groups are welcome to send submissions for the "Campus Bulletin."

Submissions should be no more than 250 words. The Highland Cavalier Staff reserves the right to edit submissions.

Summer Clearance going on now!

Ruby's Closet

Consignment and Beauty Boutique, LLC
Shoppes on Main
405B East Main St.

Hours:
Tues-Fri: 11-6
Sat: 11-5
rgb_05@hotmail.com
(276) 365-2105

American Eagle
Abercrombie
Hollister
Aeropostale
Victoria Secret
$3.00 Sunglasses
Mery Kay

Become a fan of Ruby's Closet on Facebook for more information!

PAPA JOHN'S

Better Ingredients.
Better Pizza.

Large 1-Topping Pizza $6.99 plus

1 order of Cheesesticks for $3.99 or
1 order of new Wings for $5.99

We carry Coke products in 2-liters and 20 oz.
Carryout / Delivery to any campus housing

(276) 679-7272

dedicated

to RUNNING RIGHT

Friends of Coal

Alpha Natural Resources

One Alpha Place
P.O. Box 2345
Abingdon, VA 24212
276-618-4410
www.alphanr.com

Cavs capture first win of the season at home

SiMor llnelHKtkar Chad Hooker tiMites a taoida diJri

^iJioshJbrdaa
Staff Writer
jmSd<9uvawlse.edn

The Cavs first win of the season came on Saturday when they defeated the Newport News Apprentice SchooDBulleis, 48-0 at home.

Senior wide receivers Nhkeem Abdul-Saboer and Jason Lovett oomUaed for six touchdowns andiprodnced 466 yards of total offenseL

Abdul-Saboer and Lovett were a mi^or force for the Cav offense and provided leader-faipifor the rest of the team.

^r y b o d y plqred much better wldi Lovett back in die lineup," said offensive oowdihator, Dew'ey.Iiusk. •

The Build^rs focusedimuch of their defense on tyiiigiio con^n l^xivett andAbdul-Saboer-r whiOh proved to be a costly mistake as :odier Oavsimade'ta^or confibBtions.

Senior quartorbadcBrad Robbinsopmplet-irrfjllft^iefHIS'yaMd^andi Ens.

Senior wideoute Matt Barbour and Ario Evans had five receptions for a totaliof 10S yards, Idefensively, opponente have to worry about where Lovett is on die fieh), whlobtopens tilings up for otiiier players;" Losk said.

The Cavalier defense allowed tiie Builders oflensetoigain just 98'total yards.

Junior linebacker John Mathis.was tiie<der feasive leader for die Cav^ posting VI tackles and one sack.

"[Matiiis] was.aggressive and.madepliys!" saididensivecoordinatoi; JohnKuzoo;

Other mnbers of tiie defense .whoi m^or contributions were seniors Matt (^dar and Nick DIDonato, junior Luke-Spuribck)ud: sophomore Josh Weavet The four.oombin«(!ctf V^^ 17teokles andidiree sacks. # ' i'f

"tbe.defense.asawholedido't giveup any Ugplays all day«"Kuzoko said.

The Gavslookto continue titeirsuocws as they travel to WMt Virginia Tech tomorrow to fioeciOie ottMenBean atiaOipiMi.

Junior llnaiMoker Dennis Bennett returns the Cam BUIDtta of Newport Nei>s'i!lMiiW^ " i ' ^

Intramurals in full swing with tournaments this week

By Nek DIDonato
Staff Writer
nnd3s@uvawise.edti

Intramural touraunente began earlier tills week for soccer and'whlfQe ball teams, while flag footballteafflS!get ready for a new season.

K^ipa Sigma, StaffInfection, Duldi Masters andFC.McOraray are tiieteainathat look to advance fiu in die soccertournamenthtthe yeat Wittiflagfootballrightaround tiM Oomer Ifae'Kappa Sigma team looks to stqr dominant over tiie RedAirt Football team again diis yeat .

"Botiiteamscome out strong every year and one of tiiem is alw^fintiiie champibnshipigame," Nick Mardiall; coordinator of intramurals and recreation.

The teams will compete for n chancetogo to New Orleans over Christmasbreak to compete'in die National Flag Football ChampU otthslp and possibly a guest appearance on a CBS television program.

Besides tiie m^or intramural sporte going on right now, stedente are encouraged to compete in die sin^e d^ events.

Studente shouldokeokttieactivities calendar to view upcoming single dqr> events.

In Wachwsdav'sii^rwnural 80ooernMtoh44>^belweani«2 Staff Infeotlon and «3iDutoh Maatarei ataff lnrMlon took the 14 wlnibi a penalty Mofc sho o1b^

j y A C S O F T H E W E E K E N D

Batttmore Ravens ® .San Diego Chargers

New York Giants ® Dallas Cowboys

The game is tile dassio Immoveable qtyect vmes an unstoppable force scenario.

The Ravens, defMse bu been oneiof die best in die.NPL for at teast die. last decade, "rhey finished die 2 (K ^ season with a tougji loss to die eventual Super Bowl Champion (Pltttdturgh Stealers la dieAFC Chaffl-IpooiUp OaB&

Laitweel^ dwRavenagalhed'SiQS HSMs Mth'helpertoili qilaiiMHUik ,^aottojl^))inlpriiit t!<kj^

The Cbaigera^ ond« offensive guruNorvTuraei; haveoreatMan mploslve offeaae the past few seasons wldi Pttlllp Rivera; LaDainian Tomlnson andAntonibOalesi

.This game isB preview of a possiUb playoffmateh-up.

The Chugeis have home field advanlage,.bat die Ravens have superiortelenl.

The|unewlll:alr Sunday at 4:1S pijOi pffCBjB.. 7

The game will be die first regular season game played in die Cowboys' new stadium and die home team will be looking to defeat tiie Glante for a secoad'year in a row.

Botii teams won last week, with die Glante narrowly holding off Uie Redskins at Glante Stadium and tiie Cowboys dominating die Buccaneers inTampa.

Cowboys' quartetbaek Tony Rpmo jdioWed 00, signs pf missing departed wlda. ðee|VK Ter^li 0«<

enr, however, Giant's quarterback BU Manning suffered from not having bis former big ptey receiver Plaxioo Bures&

Both teams plagr a doninaUng sQrle.of offeena and.defense; widi an emphaste on tunning die ball.

Because bodi teams are so eveoly matohed dM edge ould go-to die home team in their new atedlom.

Theigafflo wUl alr Sunday at 8:20 •piin.on.NpC...;/